K'taka sees biggest Omicron surge

Reports 23 new cases of the Covid variant, tally stands at 66

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

KARNATAKA witnessed a spike in Omicron cases on the last day of 2021, with 23 fresh cases being reported. With this, the tally of the new variant has gone up to 66. Health and Medical Education Minister Dr K Sudhakar tweeted, "23 new cases of Omicron confirmed today, of which 19 are international travellers from the USA, Europe, Middle East and Africa."

Of these, four were children have not received Covid vaccines, one person had received one dose, 12 had both doses, another person had received two doses along with a booster, two people were vaccinated but data on how many doses was not available and vaccination status of two other persons was not available.

The biggest single-day surge in Omicron cases in Karnataka came on a day when the state reported 832 Covid cases, which is the highest in three months after reporting 933 cases on September 30.

Bengaluru led the surge with the threat of a third wave looming. The state capital's active cases had fallen to 4,833 on November 30, but rose to 7,286 on Friday. The city had also witnessed its highest recovery rate of 98.31 per cent on November 30, but dropped to 98.12 per cent on Friday. The state is testing international arrivals for Omicron in Covid-positive cases. Department officials said the variant's spread could be much higher as genome sequencing is not being done on all those testing positive if they have had no travel history.

Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai instructed deputy commissioners of districts bordering the neighbouring states, including Kodagu, Chamarajanagar, Belagavi, Dakshina Kannada and Udupi, to conduct more tests. P3

GST Council defers textiles rate hike, refers it to GoM

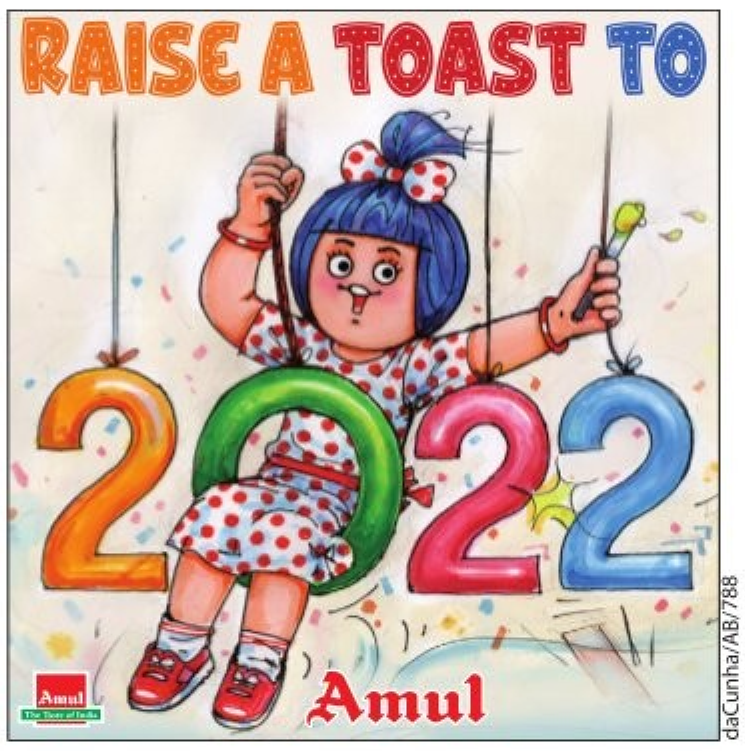
ANURADHA SHUKLA @ New Delhi

FOLLOWING opposition from traders and several states, the GST Council on Friday decided not to effect the tax rate hike on textiles from 5% to 12% for now. The ministers' panel looking into rate rationalisation will now take the call.

"We will retain the status quo and not go to 12% from 5%, in the case of textile," Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman told reporters after the meeting. Sitharaman added that the Council was of the opinion that this is not the right time to do it as the textile sector is struggling to recover from the pandemic shock.

However, the Council did not give similar concession to footwear. At its meeting in September, the Council had decided to rectify the inverted duty structure for footwear and textiles. Subsequently, the rate for the two items for any value was raised to 12%, effective January 1, 2022. Earlier the GST rate was 5% for sale value up to ₹1,000 per piece in the case of apparels and per pair in the case of footwear.

At a pre-Budget meeting on Thursday, Tamil Nadu Finance Minister P Thiagarajan had asked if the rate hike can be delayed. Delhi, Rajasthan, Telangana and Bengal, too, opposed the move.



IMD let Chennai drown without timely warning

S V KRISHNA CHAITANYA @ Chennai

Twice in two consecutive months, Chennai has received over 200 mm of rainfall and on both the occasions, the IMD failed to pick up the extreme weather event. While the city received 215 mm rainfall on November 7, it recorded 201 mm on December 31.

Officials TNIE spoke to cited the lack of adequate upper air data as the reason for this failure. Every two days, an instrument called radiosonde is flown on a weather balloon from Chennai as well as Karaikal to generate upper air observations. For several months, it was not carried out for lack of instruments. A senior official at the Regional Meteorological Centre here said they received the instruments only a few days back, and started generating data from Thursday. PIC: P7

BJP, Cong fight it out over temple law proposal

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

THE state government's plan to free temples from government control has triggered a political slugfest between the opposition Congress and ruling BJP. While Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai on Friday clarified that they will not hand over temples to any group in particular and only free them from government control, Congress termed it a ploy to pass on temple management to BJP workers.

Bommai recently announced that the government will stop managing temples to ensure that the funds allocated are utilised for temple works alone. Since then, Congress has been attacking the state government.

State Congress president DK Shivakumar on Friday said the move is a big blunder and his party will not allow it to happen. The party will hold a meeting of senior leaders on January 4 to discuss further course of action, he added. "The ruling party is keen to introduce laws against cow slaughter, religious conversions and now freeing temples as it is losing polls," he said. CONTINUED ON: P4

WHAT'S IN STORE FOR NAMMA OORU

Stepping into 2022, Bengaluru faces myriad challenges like crumbling infrastructure to jam-packed and pothole-scarred roads. A lot needs to be done for the IT capital. TNIE looks at a few infrastructure projects that will come as a blessing this new year

BDA KARANTH LAYOUT SITES

BDA will be in the thick of action in 2022, releasing tenders all over again to ready the city's Revised Master Plan - 2031, which will serve as the blueprint for the city's development. BDA also plans to call for tenders for its second biggest layout — Dr Shivaram Karanth Layout — and the plan is to allot over 20,000 sites. Global tenders are to be called for Peripheral Ring Road, which was proposed over a decade ago, to decongest Bengaluru. Nadaprabhu Kempegowda Layout, for which 10,000 sites have already been allotted, will have fully completed infrastructure by 2022-end.

METRO STRETCHING NETWORK WIDER

Bangalore Metro Rail Corporation Ltd will have two new lines of Phase II commissioned in 2022 — the 3-km Chikkabidarakallu-Madavar (formerly BIEC) in September and 15-km Baiyappanahalli-Whitefield line by December. While the latter is proceeding at a fast pace, work is yet to commence on Madavar station. Reason: The contractor, Simplex, was not in a financially sound position to implement the work, so it was handed over to IL&FS recently. Ridership is expected to increase on Metro trains this year.

AVIATION CLOSE TO PRE-COVID DAYS

The sector, which had taken a beating due to the pandemic, is rapidly recovering. Bengaluru's Kempegowda International Airport now averages between 72,000 and 75,000 passengers a day, and is expected to reach its pre-Covid level of 90,000 to 1 lakh passengers in the early part of 2022, if the trend continues. Also, T2 of KIA is expected to in place by June 2022 and will add another 25 million passengers per annum to the airport's capacity. Talks on revival of HAL airport are set to continue this year. The Regional Connectivity Scheme projects, which managed to hold steady despite the Covid-induced slump, are expected to connect more cities in 2022.

BWSSB CAUVERY STAGE V IN THE WORKS

No major projects, with the big one on Cauvery Water Supply Scheme Stage V slated to be completed in 2022, but expected to be ready only by March 2023. More sewage treatment plants are expected to be completed in the new year. There will be no major increase in water to be supplied to the city, which will stay at 1450 million litres per day.

RAILWAYS ALL EYES ON SUBURBAN RAIL

The first tender for one corridor of the long-awaited Rs 15,767-crore Bengaluru Suburban Rail Project (BSRP), running to 148.17-km, was floated by its implementing agency, Rail Infrastructure Development Enterprises (Karnataka) Ltd (K-RIDE) for the 25.01-km Baiyappanahalli-Chikkabanavara line. Tenders are expected to be floated for the second line from Heelalige to Rajanakunte. The other two lines, Bengaluru-Devanahalli and Kengeri-Cantonment-Whitefield, will not be a priority in 2022. Also, Sir M Visvesvaraya Terminal at Baiyappanahalli, modelled on the lines of KIA, was completed nearly a year ago. It will offer scope to run more trains from Bengaluru, and help decongest Yesvantpur, KSR and Cantonment railway stations. It is expected to be inaugurated by the Prime Minister in 2022.

BBMP WHITE-TOPPING TOP OF AGENDA

BBMP hopes to complete its target of white-topping 150km of roads. While 100+ km of roads have been completed, the rest is expected to be ready by March 2022. The Inner Ring Road from Domlur flyover to Ejipura, Goodshed Road, Palace Road from Mysore Bank to Chalukya Circle and TenderSure road from Mysore Bank to Rajkumar statue will also be ready. In addition, the other major projects BBMP is planning to complete are Kundalahalli underpass, the grade separator on the 8-lane corridor at Okalipuram and an underpass on Old Airport Road.

NHAI ZOOM TO MYSURU IN OCTOBER

The ambitious 117.3-km 10-lane Bengaluru-Mysuru Expressway, which is being readied to reduce travel time between the two cities to 90 minutes from the present three hours, is expected to meet its revised deadline of October 2022. The first phase from Bengaluru to Nidaghatta in Mandya district will be ready by May next year, while the second phase from Nidaghatta to Mysuru will be in place in September. The project costs Rs 8,172 crore.

Panel pulls up officials on poor upkeep of lakes

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru:

MEMBERS of the Citizens Monitoring Committee (CMC) on Friday pulled up state government officials for the poor quality of water in Bellandur and Varthur lakes, and sewage entering the water bodies.

The CMC, which holds regular meetings, involved former members of the National Green Tribunal Monitoring Committee on Friday, to give their feedback and assess the ground situation of two prime water bodies. The meeting was held in physical and virtual mode near Varthur Lake, after a field inspection by officials, experts and citizens.

At the meeting, CMC members pointed out to Rakesh Singh, additional chief secretary, urban development department, that fencing work along Varthur Lake and channels taking treated water to Kolar is not completed, and water quality is very poor. They also said that NGT orders were still not being implemented by officials, and the matter will be reported to the NGT, requesting stern action.

Reacting to this, Rakesh Singh said the next interaction will be held on January 6. All the points raised will be addressed and resolved within a week's time. CMC members pointed out, "BWSSB had committed to arrest 97 per cent sewage by March 2021, but sewage continues to flow upstream of Bellandur Lake, which comes from CBD areas. KSPCB has accepted that water quality in the lakes is very poor. IISc researchers have also assessed this."

Bangalore Development Authority (BDA) officials stated that they were awaiting a report from the Survey department to clear encroachments towards Ambedkar Nagar, and fencing needs to be done. "We also pointed out that in the absence of the NGT-constituted committee, the CMC is actively working and closely monitoring work on the lakes," they said.

Daily Starscope

PETER VIDAL

01st January : This is one of those moments when the stars advise everyone to take a long, cool look at their lives, no matter what their sign. Some people will be making choices, but first the right questions must be asked, so everything and anything is up for grabs. It's a time for wisdom.

ARIES (Mar 21 - Apr. 20)
There's a strange feel about today's planetary positions which, as far as you are concerned, brings your best chance of a bit of peace and quiet, always important to restore your battered morale at the end of the week. Could some long-lost memory be emerging from your past? I think so.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 - May 21)
Now that you've turned the corner, leaving a whole phase of life behind, you will soon have a better idea of what you're doing, why you're doing it and where it's all leading to. In general, today's mixture of passion and realism suits you, so why not stop struggling and accept that the world is on your side?

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21)
From a close examination of the stars, it appears that you've little to fear from threatened confrontations or crises and everything to look forward to in terms of rest, relaxation and a chance to re-charge your batteries. In spite of everything, I am sure you will return fitter than ever.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23)
Sympathetic signs from the Moon for most of the day encourage you to treat friends more sensitively, although you may be too wrapped up in your own hopes and fears to take other people seriously. They also, by the way, encourage you to spend more money!

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23)
Mars, the most energetic of all the planets, continues to give a cutting edge to events around you which is stimulating but may be rather dangerous emotionally. With luck you should manage to get your own way, especially if you're dealing with family matters.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23)
After all you've been through, you're now looking forward to the time when life will at last be more restful. Part of the difficulty lies in your failure to organise your affairs properly. And that's a problem which dates back well into last year, to when conditions were different.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)
At last you're standing up for yourself, and an issue which has caused a certain amount of angst in family circles should be close to a solution. Do what you can to help the healing process on its way, and you'll earn the love and respect of your peers in the process.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)
You can be justly pleased with your progress, but don't expect other people to praise you unduly. There are those who disagree profoundly with what you have done as well as your way of doing it. You have probably learnt by now that gentle persuasion works much better than banging heads together.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22)
Whether the future continues along positive lines is largely up to you. No two of you will have used your skills, opportunities and experience in exactly the same way. It won't be long before the tide really starts to turn in your direction, although I suspect that you're growing tired of waiting.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20)
Venus is the traditional ruler of emotional relationships, and its position in your chart in recent weeks has indicated a tendency to be too secretive in this department. There may be something a partner should know. But should you tell them? You can, but you'll have to sugar the pill.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)
Important decisions lie ahead as far as your professional status is concerned, but there may be other ambitions about which choices will have to be made fairly soon. A partner may be moving too fast for your liking. On the other hand, you're not exactly sitting on your hands.

PISCES (Feb. 20 - Mar 20)
This is a time to focus on your spiritual interests. You're not one to preach or proselytise, and you'll benefit most if you pursue your enquiries behind the scenes and without attracting attention. Enlightenment is really not so far away! And, in love, enjoy your fantasies.

Omicron: Low-risk nation travellers slip under radar

Give samples and leave; officials have to track, have them quarantined

RANJANI MADHAVAN
@ Bengaluru

Health workers conduct RT-PCR tests on commuters at a bus stop in the city on Friday | EXPRESS

PASSENGERS arriving from low-risk countries or from other domestic destinations to Bengaluru, are exiting the airport and later testing positive with the Omicron variant of Covid-19, which is proving to be a cause of concern.

On Wednesday, the state health department reported two patients with Omicron who had either left Bengaluru airport before their samples returned Covid-positive, or exited even after testing positive.

A 53-year-old man who travelled from Dubai to Bengaluru on December 23, got himself tested at Kempegowda International Airport, but left the airport before his results arrived. His son picked him up and as they drove to Trichy, Tamil Nadu, they got a positive test result.

The case was referred to Tamil Nadu, and he was isolated at Trichy General Hospital. His genomic sequencing results detected Omicron.

In the second case, a 41-year-old man travelled from Mumbai to Bengaluru by flight on December 23, tested positive at the airport but took a bus from the airport back to Mumbai the same evening. He is isolated in Mumbai, and his genome sequencing results have detected Omicron as well.

State Health Commissioner Randeep D said that only passengers from high-risk countries are expected to wait until their RT-PCR results come in at the airport.

The remaining can give their samples and leave. If they test positive, they are later traced and placed in institutional quarantine.

"However, we have now asked Bengaluru Rural District Health Officer to keep a close check on international passengers exiting the airport. They must have an RT-PCR negative report," Randeep explained.

As per guidelines, the United Arab Emirates does not feature on the list of high-risk countries.

From low-risk countries, 2 per cent of people may be randomly tested at the airport. There are no guidelines mandating domestic travellers to wait at the airport for RT-PCR test results.

INT'L PASSENGERS TO BE RE-TESTED ONLY AFTER 10 DAYS

International passengers isolated after testing positive at the airport are being tested for Covid-19 prior to the 10-day timeline mentioned in the discharge policy, and the State government has taken cognisance of the matter. A circular issued by the Commissioner of Health and Family Welfare says such testing and consequent results have no significance, and only cause confusion regarding the discharge date. The government reiterated that hospitals must follow the prescribed norms for follow-up RT-PCR testing before discharge. The order added that any deviation will be viewed strictly, and the hospitals concerned will be liable for strict action. In mild and moderate cases of Omicron, the patient can be discharged after 10 days from the date of testing positive.

'More measures to ramp up health infra'

"THEY were told to make more beds available, plan for adequate oxygen supply and prepare indents for medicines on time. District health officers should ensure proper coordination among hospitals treating Covid patients," CM Bommai said.

He set January-end as the target to complete vaccinating the entire eligible population with the first dose of Covid vaccine and to cover 80 per cent with the second dose. Now, these figures stand at 97 per cent and 76 per cent.

He also said that more effective measures will be taken to ramp up health infrastructure. The process for medicine supply and arranging ICU beds will be streamlined. Karnataka is among eight states in the country that are witnessing a rise in the Omicron cases and the state government has taken it seriously, the CM said.

HEALTH

PUBLIC WELLNESS WILL NEED MORE ATTENTION

CHETANA BELAGERE @ Bengaluru

THOUGH the world is not the same anymore, the year 2021 seems to have ended with some boost to the fight against the Covid-19 pandemic.

The two years of pandemic have taught us important lessons. Apart from the five Ts (testing, tracking, treatment, vaccination and adherence to Covid-19 guidelines, improved diagnostics, surveillance systems monitoring and improving the overall health care surveillance by integrating more technology will be in focus. And beyond this, there were two more Ts — teamwork and training. Health experts say emphasis on these five aspects will be the bedrock for understanding the coming year and for the government to focus on.

While pandemic preparedness is pivotal, the year gone by has highlighted the need for improved public health communication and awareness, which the government is less invested in. As much spending for infrastructure for smart cities is essential, there is a pressing need for increased spending on public health. This will be a key differentiator to rebuilding healthcare in 2022.

CHALLENGES AHEAD

- Two-thirds of children in Karnataka aged 6-59 months are anaemic.
- 48 per cent of women in the state have anaemia.
- Infant mortality rate is higher in rural areas (28 per 1,000 live births) than in urban areas (21 per 1,000 live births).
- Stunting among children is at 35 per cent, wasting at 20 per cent, underweight children account for 33 per cent.

LOOKING FORWARD

- Booster shots for all
- Covid vaccines for children
- Six genome sequencing labs to be set up in Bengaluru, Mysuru, Shivamogga, Hubballi, Mangaluru and Vijayapura.
- Report of the Health Vision Group, set up by the state government, is expected in 2022

EXPECT MORE ACTION IN POLITICAL THEATRE

Bommai, DKS, Siddu and HDK to be in the spotlight

POLITICS

RAMU PATIL @ Bengaluru

THE Assembly polls in 2023 will be unlike any in the recent past, and the stage for that intense battle will be set through 2022. A series of events through the pandemic before and after the change of the CM, the intrigue around it and the number of by-polls kept the pot boiling in 2021. It is expected to get more intense in 2022 as the action will revolve around Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai, Congress leaders D K Shivakumar and Siddarmaiah, and JDS leader H D Kumaraswamy.

For Bommai, 2022 will be crucial on the administrative front, even as he shoulders the responsibility of leading the party. Bommai's budget, expected to reflect his development vision, will set the tone for elections in early 2023. The government's recent policy decisions indicate that it will continue the party's Hindutva agenda and push welfare programmes to overcome the anti-incumbency factor, evident in the last few elections.

Bommai may opt for a reshuffle to usher in new vigour into the administration, while the party too may rejig its state unit to ensure battle-readiness to face a resurgent Congress. The party may take steps to retain its hold in North Karnataka and penetrate the Old Mysuru region, crucial for both the BJP and the Congress.

The Congress, under Shivakumar's leadership, is already making efforts to further consolidate its hold on Vokkaligas. Its planned padayatra for implementation of the Mekedatu Balancing Reservoir Project is among the first initiatives in the run-up to 2023 polls. Although the party did better than the BJP in the recently held urban local body polls, it faces the challenge of maintaining unity among its top leaders as the party has many CM aspirants.

The JDS faces the biggest challenge after a poor show in recent elections, even as it nurtures hopes of staying relevant in Old Mysuru region and ambitions of coming to power on its own.

WHAT'S ON THE CARDS

- Bommai's first budget
- Cabinet expansion/ reshuffle
- BJP might make some changes in its state unit
- Local bodies, including BBMP elections
- Council polls may help BJP achieve its goal of gaining majority in the Upper House

TECH INDUSTRY

HOW IT SECTOR SURFED THE PANDEMIC WAVES

HRITHIK KIRAN BAGADE @ Bengaluru

WHEN Covid-19 struck India in early 2020, it forced people into the safety of their four walls, where they studied and worked, among other things. Even as they collected themselves and tried to go about their lives, the IT industry was powering the new normal.

While the unforeseen situation slowed the economy down to a limp, IT firms continued on their growth trajectory, offering solutions and innovations for domestic and global clientele.

According to the Indian Brand Equity Foundation, the country's IT and business services industry's revenue was estimated at around $6.96 billion in the first half of 2021, translating to an increase of 6.4% year-on-year. The industry accounted for 8 per cent of India's GDP in 2020, with the Indian software product business expected to reach $100 billion by 2025.

All through 2020-21, the industry serviced and managed a vast ecosystem for people, who were compelled to adopt technologies and digitisation for remote execution of daily tasks, including academics, shopping, checking on loved ones and even availing a Covid vaccine. This relentless operation has kept the sector buoyant, while several others are faltering.

"B2C digitisation is driving Indian technology consumption, in the realms of EdTech, FoodTech, and FinTech. Everything is going on the cloud and everyone is trying to build digital solutions," said Akhilesh Tuteja, Partner and Head, Digital Consulting, KPMG in India. Technology has existed for years, but certain driving forces emerge once in a while, which become ubiquitous and push growth. Today, amidst the pandemic, digital wallets and social networking, for instance, have become necessities for people 'cut off' from each other. With all these disruptions, the whole ecosystem tends to grow, which also provides room for younger innovators and entrepreneurs.

DIGITAL MAKES A DIFFERENCE

- Students, institutions adopted e-learning tools to continue the curriculum unhindered
- Offices shifted entire processes online, enabling staff to execute projects safely from home
- People used e-commerce extensively to purchase groceries and essentials, and apps to have food delivered home
- People used net banking and digital wallets for financial services
- Families and friends connected over social media and video conferencing apps
- Citizens booked slots for swab collection and availed Covid vaccines on dedicated platforms

Farmers seek end to turbulence in climate, prices

AGRICULTURE

K SHIVA KUMAR @ Bengaluru

AS the year draws to a close, farmers are sending up a fervent prayer: that the coming year should bring better prospects. Year 2021 left a trail of unprecedented destruction and climatic turbulence, adding to the uncertainty of a Covid-hit economy, crashing prices, and the nation's longest and biggest-ever stir against farm laws.

Farmers who had hoped for a normal monsoon and bumper harvest to overcome the impact of the pandemic, had to contend with the worst-ever serial floods, crop loss on more than 12.5 lakh acres, and few takers for their produce.

The pandemic, too, took a heavy toll: crops withered in the fields without the availability of labour, and those who managed to salvage their crops were left with bleak prospects in the market, and falling prices. Floriculturists were reduced to tears after a blanket ban was imposed on social events.

On the other hand, the year is also testimony to farmers' conviction and strength, and their agitation over the now-repealed farm laws will go down as a watershed event in the history of Indian agriculture. The year-long protest along the Delhi borders made global headlines. While the amendment to the APMC Act opened doors to private players to weaken mandis, the amendment to the Land Reforms Bill relaxing norms to help non-agriculturists own green tracks, created an unruly situation in Karnataka and other states. Though the adamant Modi government was compelled to bow to farmers' demand for repeal, the stand-off is not over yet.

The dawn of 2022 has raised hopes of better bargains for their produce, and also apprehensions of a long-drawn showdown with the government, which could have a far-reaching impact on national politics. Farmers pray for a normal monsoon, bumper crop, a market with scientific price mechanism and restructuring of APMCs.

Farmer leader Kurbur Shanthakumar said the government should bring all crops under MSP so that farmers do not fall into a debt trap or commit suicide. The government should also reintroduce free medical care for the farming community, aid for their children to pursue higher education and make farming lucrative.

WHEN NATURE STRIKES

Damage due to flood and rain-related incidents (July to November 2021)

- Crop loss: 12.54 lakh hectares
- Estimated crop loss: Rs 11,041 crore
- Rain-related deaths: 62
- Damage to roads: 45,119km
- Bridges damaged: 3,306
- Houses damaged: 54,716
- Electricity poles: 44,119

EDUCATION

THE PATH AHEAD

- Full implementation of the National Education Policy (NEP)-2020 in schools and colleges
- A decision on the egg and banana issue in the mid-day meal scheme
- Resolution to the pay and job security matter of guest lecturers
- Better streamlining of modes of education considering the prevailing pandemic situation

Focus on quality: NEP, students' health priority

PEARL MARIA D'SOUZA @Bengaluru

THE year 2022 is likely to witness a sea change in the field of education — quality of education, nutritional aspects and mental health of the children.

The key issue that will be in focus is the implementation of the National Education Policy (NEP)-2020.

The NEP, which has already been implemented in some colleges, will see further streamlining in higher education, while schools are also set to see its implementation from the academic year 2022-23 — considered as zero year.

Karnataka's progress in NEP-2020 implementation at the college level (first-year undergraduates) will be gauged at the end of this academic year (2021-22).

The year 2022 will also likely see the outcome of the exit gains of the contentious decision on eggs in midday meals. Moreover, it will determine the nutritional impact, attendance and food pattern changes among students.

Whether it will be approved remains to be seen. In the meantime, a baseline survey was conducted to check the outcomes of the scheme on children in Yadgir. A midline and endline survey will give a clearer picture on the nutritional improvements through intake of eggs/bananas in midday meals.

Mental health remains a concern among students linked to the change in mode of education -- online, offline — to a change in educational landscape with the NEP-2020 stressors. This is expected to be at the centre-stage in 2022.

Laws to be amended to regularise gomala land

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

CHIEF Minister Basavaraj Bommai on Friday announced a string of decisions to fine-tune the administration to be people-friendly. Among these include bringing an amendment to the laws to regularise 'gomala' being cultivated by farmers, steps to redefine deemed forests and also to prepare a master plan for development of 48 towns.

"The government will conduct a survey to implement the 'Swamithva Yojna', Prime Minister Narendra Modi's ambitious land-holding scheme for the poor, by using private drones, at a cost Rs 20 crore. This will ease the grant of title deeds," he told reporters after a marathon five-hour meeting with district deputy commissioners.

He felt that the delay in regularisation of gomala land, cultivated for several years by farmers, under the 'Akrama-Sakrama' scheme was due to the Forest Department identifying even revenue land as coming under its jurisdiction. "The DCs should take initiative in this regard and also ensure disposal of thousands of revenue cases pending for over a decade with tahsildars and assistant commissioners. We will provide additional support staff to clear files on a fast track", he explained.

State to have ethanol policy: Minister

ENS @ Udupi

THE State Government will bring a separate ethanol policy to boost ethanol production in sugar factories, Sugar and Textiles Minister Shankar Patil Munenakoppa announced on Friday.

As the Centre has set a target of reaching 20 per cent ethanol blending by 2025, enhancing ethanol production from sugar will be given priority, he told reporters after visiting the Udupi primary weavers' services cooperative society on Friday. "After touring Uttar Pradesh, where sugar is predominantly cultivated, I felt that mere production of sugar will not be economically viable. So, ethanol generation will be given a boost in the state through a separate policy," he said.

"A research team will be formed and ethanol production will be ramped up as the state houses 88 sugar factories," he said.

Temples are treasures of the state: DKS

"TEMPLES are treasures of the state and the ruling party wants to hand them over to their party workers. The CM should not be under the false impression that it will help them get votes," KPCC president DK Shivakumar said, terming the proposed law as anti-Hindu. He accused the government of planning to issue an ordinance to bring the Anti-Conversion law into force as the Bill, after passing through the Assembly, is yet to be introduced in the Legislative Council. Targeting the Congress leader, Bommai said it is clear that Shivakumar's views are against Hindu temples and feelings of devotees.

Currently, the State Endowments Department administers over 34,000 temples and some of them generate considerable revenue. Repair, renovation and development of temples is taken up by the government.

Govt to hasten relief for flood affected

BENGALURU: With many complaints pouring in about hundreds of people who lost houses during the recent rain in Belagavi, Karwar and parts of Bagalkot, not receiving any help since November, the State Government on Friday said that immediate attention will be given to those living in community shelters and other places after their houses were washed away. At a meeting with district deputy commissioners on Friday, Water Resources Minister Govind Karjol directed the district authorities in Uttara Kannada, Belagavi and Bagalkot to ensure immediate relief to those affected. Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai too suggested that such cases need to be dealt with promptly. Each of the identified beneficiaries will receive a total of Rs 35,000 relief, officials informed. The authorities have been instructed to start disbursing the relief amounts from January 1. ENS

BJP, JDS leaders eager to join Cong: Satish Jarkiholi

BELAGAVI: In the light of the Congress' good performance in the recent elections to urban local bodies and the Legislative Council, several leaders from the BJP and JDS are eager to join the grand old party, claimed KPCC working president Satish Jarkiholi on Friday. "Several top leaders of the BJP and JDS are waiting to join the Congress. Many are close to taking a call, but it is not possible to take their names at this juncture. They will defect when the Assembly elections are round the corner," he told reporters. Jarkiholi said people have rallied behind the Congress in the elections held to the Upper House and local bodies. The trend will be similar in the forthcoming elections to taluk and zilla panchayats, he claimed. ENS

An Eventxpress Initiative

Better education for brighter future in UP

Overall development of any state depends largely on education as it relates to youth and their preparations for the future. State governments before the one formed in 2017 under leadership of Yogi Adityanath took insufficient steps in correspondence to the growing population. This resulted in the number of universities and colleges and secondary schools in the state remaining less that the desirable. Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath took a meaningful initiative in this direction due to which the state is moving towards achieving self-sufficiency in the field of education.

Basic education

The basic education system in the state was in bad shape before 2017 due to neglect of the past governments. Number of basic schools in rural as well as the urban areas was less than needed. Most of the school buildings were dilapidated and unsafe. Wherever, there was a proper school building, it more often than not had lesser than the needed teachers. There were schools even with no buildings or no teachers. Setting up proper schools and bringing in children for studies was a far-fetched thought. However, the government under the Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath took care of these essential aspects and launched 'Operation Kayakalp' scheme to improve the conditions on ground. Under this, 1.38 lakh government basic schools could be revitalized. Around 1.5 lakh basic teachers were appointed. A campaign 'School Chalo Abhiyan' was launched to enroll children in these schools and it resulted in bringing more than 4.80 crore children to schools. Enrollment of out of school / drop out children was also made possible through Sharda Portal under the 'Har Din School Aayen' programme. The government started 771 Kasturba Gandhi Balika Vidyalayas. Libraries were established in these schools to attract children towards reading. In order to incentivize children for studies, the government started giving free shoes, stockings, sweaters, text books and bags to school children from class 1 to 8. The government also has decided to send money directly to the account of the parents of the children to ensure that the children get timely and quality material. This brought a smile to the faces of the students as well as the parents.

Secondary education

The Yogi government achieved remarkable success also in the field of secondary education. As many as 250 new inter colleges have been opened during the tenure of present government. The government also cleared pending and new vacancies on 5,987 posts of teachers. It established Atal Residential Schools in all the 18 divisions of the state for free education of the children of labourers. In view of the difficulties in the education of girls, the government has started construction of girls hostels in 107 development blocks.

Vocational education

In order to connect education with employment, the government also strengthened the vocational education. 35 new government ITIs were established in the state. At present, 28 engineering colleges, 26 polytechnics and 305 government ITIs are operating in the state. In all government training institutes, five new trades have been introduced. Candidates belonging to the Scheduled Castes / Scheduled Tribes are given free of cost training at all government institutions. To promote self-employment and establishment of new ventures in the service sector, the government has made provision of loans up to Rs. 25 lakh and Rs 10 lakh respectively.

Higher education

Taking a far-reaching decision in the field of higher education, the Yogi government decided to provide free education up to graduation to the girls. With the decision to establish a state university in every division in the state, 77 new government colleges, 8 new state universities and 25 model government colleges have been established. The process of opening state universities is also going on in some districts of the state. Apart from this, Pandit Deendayal Upadhyay Research Chairs were established in 15 state universities. Establishment of Guru Shree Gorakshanath Research Chair in Pt Deendayal Upadhyay Gorakhpur University will be a boon for research students in future. The state government has also promulgated Uttar Pradesh Private Universities Act to smoothen the process of setting up a private university and to ensure uniformity in standards of education in these universities.

This lab created a diagnosis tool and sanitizer tunnel to combat the first wave of Covid pandemic. Robots have also been developed there.

In order to improve the level of education, 51 newly-constructed government polytechnics have been approved to be operated on PPP mode. At present, teaching and training work is being done in 147 state and 19 state-aided institutions.

Uttar Pradesh emerging as defence manufacturing hub

The Uttar Pradesh Defence Industrial Corridor (UPDIC) is an ambitious and major industrial project to put Uttar Pradesh on the world map in defence production. Centered on Bundelkhand, the corridor is expected to serve the core of the the Indian defence and aerospace sectors as it will reduce forces dependence on foreign manufacturers. The Prime Minister Narendra Modi had announced it as a gift to UP in February 2018 and assured of government investments worth Rs. 20,000 crore in it. However, with the actual developments taking place in the corridor, investments worth more than Rs 50,000 crore are expected. It may be noted that the country has only two defence industrial corridors – one in UP and the other in Tamil Nadu.

The defence industrial corridor in UP has six nodes, viz. Aligarh, Agra, Jhansi, Chitrakoot, Kanpur, and Lucknow. With these nodes attracting all kinds of defence manufacturers from around the world, this corridor is coming up as one of the largest and advanced defence manufacturing hubs in the world.

Though, the earliest investment assurances for the corridor were announced in a meet with defence manufacturers at Aligarh in as early as August 2018, but it picked up momentum only during the Defence Expo 2020 held in Lucknow in February 2020. As many as 22 MoUs were signed between UPEIDA, the nodal authority for development of the corridor, and various private entities including startups, well-established industries and institutional organizations. As many as 24 more MoUs were signed soon after the Defense Expo, taking the number to 46. The total investment proposals were then valued at Rs 50,000 crore. The list of entities willing to set up their unit in the corridor kept growing as 16 MoUs were signed during Aero India 2021 held in Bengaluru. Then again, six more MoUs were signed after event taking the total number of MoUs to 68. Even later more indigenous and foreign companies have been approaching authorities for land to set up their units.

Aligarh node takes shape

Of all MoUs, highest number of them was signed for the Aligarh node of the corridor that has been set up near Andala on Aligarh-Khair Road in Aligarh. According to UPEIDA officials, a total of 29 companies had submitted proposals to set up their units at the Aligarh node.

Acting upon these proposals, the UPEIDA has allotted 55.4 hectares of land in Aligarh node to 19 firms. Anchor Research Lab LLP is prominent among these 19 allottees. This company will invest Rs 550 crore in setting up its unit on allotted 10 hectares of land. Similarly, 10 hectares of land has been allotted to Sadicate Innovation International, which is investing Rs 150 crore. Jai Sai Anu Overseas, which is setting up its unit at a cost of Rs 100 crore, has been given 4.5 hectares of land while four hectares of land has been given to Milker Defense Private Limited for setting up their unit at a cost of Rs. 98.25 crore. A company with a total investment of Rs 40 crore has been allotted two hectares of land for setting up a factory for Tractrix Auto Dynamics. Land allotment work in Aligarh node has been completed and the UPEIDA is currently constructing a 4-lane road in the node area at a cost of Rs 10.21 crore. Along with this, construction of a powerhouse and boundary wall is also going on. Companies that have taken possession of the allotted land are in the process of starting the construction of their factories.

Lucknow to build BrahMos missiles

Super Sonic Cruise Missile BrahMos is the missile of India which causes panic among the adversary countries. However, its evolution is continuing and now its next generation will be manufactured at a facility being set up in Lucknow. These missiles are manufactured by a joint venture of Defence Research and Development Organization (DRDO) of the Government of India and its Russian partner NPO Mashinostroyenia. As per the request of DRDO, the UP government has arranged 200 acres of land in Lucknow for this venture. The factory to be set up here is likely to create 5000 direct and indirect job opportunities including those for 500 engineers and technicians. With this large manufacturer setting up its factory is also to prompt establishment of nearly 200 ancilliary units for the production of various systems and sub-systems of the missile. These ancillaries might be offering employment to more than10,000 people.

Expansion of Medical Education in UP

One of the major challenges before the Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath at the time of taking over the reins of Uttar Pradesh was to bring the crumbling education system back on track. At that time, UP was far behind other states in terms of medical education facilities. Only one full-fledged PGI and few medical colleges were functioning in the state. Keeping this in view, the Yogi government took initiative to strengthen the medical education infrastructure in the state. At present, the state has at least one functional medical college in 59 districts and the process of setting up medical colleges on PPP model in 16 districts is in progress. AIIMS have been inaugurated in Gorakhpur and Raebareli while the construction of an AYUSH University in Gorakhpur has started. MBBS courses have started in seven new medical colleges and the number of MBBS seats in the state has increased by 938. Apart from this, another medical university (Atal Bihari Vajpayee Medical University) is under construction in the state.

Five district hospitals of the state (Ayodhya, Bahraich, Basti, Firozabad and Shahjahanpur) have been upgraded into medical colleges. Treatment has started in OPDs of 14 new medical colleges. MBBS course has also been started in RML Institute of Medical Sciences, Lucknow. Apart from this, the state's first maternal ICU has also been established. Super specialty blocks have been set up at Government Medical Colleges in Jhansi, Gorakhpur, Meerut, Prayagraj, Kanpur and Agra. Not only this, the government has also taken appropriate steps so that patients do not face shortage of doctors in hospitals. The government has extended the retirement age from 60 to 62 years for state cadre of doctors. Super-specialty doctors posted in medical colleges will be re-appointed for five years after retirement at the age of 65. With this, there will be no shortage of specialist doctors in medical colleges.

One District One Medical College

The Chief Minister has launched a campaign to open a medical college in every district to provide better medical treatment facilities to the people of the state. In this regard, the Prime Minister Narendra Modi created history on October 25, 2021 by simultaneously inaugurating nine medical colleges in UP. These include Madhav Prasad Tripathi Medical College in Siddharthnagar, Maharishi Deorha Baba Medical College in Deoria, Maharishi Vishwamitra Medical College in Ghazipur, Maa Vindhyavasini Devi Medical College in Mirzapur, Dr. Sonelal Patel Medical College in Pratapgarh, Veerangana Avantibai Lodhi Medical College in Etah, Amar Shaheed Jodha Singh and Thakur Dariyav Singh medical college in Fatehpur, Umanath Singh Medical College in Jaunpur and Medical College at Hardoi. Due to these medical colleges, 2,500 new beds and more than 5,000 doctors and para medical staff are available for treatment of patients.

Atal Bihari Vajpayee Medical University

Before the year 2017, all medical colleges in Uttar Pradesh were affiliated to different universities. Because of this, their session didn't happen to be identical. There was difference even in the curriculum. In the year 2019, the Yogi government decided to bring all medical colleges of the state under one university and started construction of the second medical university of the state in the name of former Prime Minister Bharat Ratna Atal Bihari Vajpayee in Lucknow. This has ensured standardization and uniformity in medical education.

This second medical university of Uttar Pradesh is being established in Chak Ganjariya City, Lucknow. In the first phase, administrative buildings, auditoriums, museums, guest houses, residences and other buildings are being constructed. About 60 government and private medical colleges and dental colleges of the state will be affiliated to this medical university.

Mahayogi Guru Gorakhnath AYUSH University

In order to encourage the education and popularity of "AYUSH" methods, the first AYUSH University of Uttar Pradesh is being established in Pipri village located in Bhathat block of Gorakhpur district. Mahayogi Guru Gorakhnath AYUSH University is being built with national level facilities in an area of 70 acres at a cost of about Rs 300 crore. All the AYUSH medical institutions of the state will be affiliated to this university to help them improve working in their respective fields. A research institute will also be established in this university to establish the credibility and acceptability of traditional and ancient medical systems in line with international standards and the utility of yoga in public health. This will make it possible to bring Ayurveda and Unani, Homeopathy and Naturopathy institutions under one roof.

Kerala govt vetoed Guv proposal to give D Litt to Kovind: Congress

Higher Education Minister Bindu denies allegations made by Chennithala

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ T'puram

THE Kerala government, through the vice-chancellor of Kerala University, vetoed the proposal of chancellor and Governor Arif Mohammed Khan to confer honorary D Litt on President Ram Nath Kovind, Congress leader Ramesh Chennithala has alleged. Posing six questions related to the issue to the governor, Chennithala sought convincing answers from the governor and the state government.

Governor Khan and the Pinarayi Vijayan-led government are at loggerheads over the latter's alleged tactics to reappoint Kannur University vice chancellor Gopinath Ravindran. Khan even asked the government to bring an ordinance to remove him as Chancellor of Universities. "There are so many things which I don't want to make public. They are serious... involve national interest and national pride," Khan had said on Thursday while offering to transfer his powers as chancellor to Higher Education Minister R Bindu, who is the pro-chancellor of universities.

Chennithala raised suspicion that government's interference to prevent conferring of D Litt on President Kovind might be the issue related to national pride that the governor had referred. Higher Education Minister Bindu denied the allegations of Chennithala. "Decisions on conferring D Litt to eminent persons are taken by the universities concerned. Nobody asked me anything about that," Bindu said.

Chennithala also asked the governor to reveal all factual matters regarding this and convince people of the state. He asked on what statute that the vice-chancellor had handed over the chancellor's recommendation on the D Litt to the government and whether he had submitted it to the university syndicate and the senate for approval as per the procedure. He also asked whether the government had any right to interfere in such issues.

Another allegation levelled is that Sanskrit University had submitted a list of three persons to be conferred with D Litt and the Governor hasn't given assent to the names. He said the list seemed to have been submitted before the tenure of previous VC ended last month.

Officials allege conversion, close school

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Belagavi

EVEN as the state government is firm on bringing anti-conversion law, which awaits passage in the Council, a private school named after a particular community has felt the heat.

In a first such case, after the Bill was passed in the Assembly during the winter session of the Legislature in Belagavi recently, the school at Ilkal in Bagalkot district was closed by officials of the Education Department on charges of trying to convert students and parents.

Acting on a complaint by a right wing outfit, the department issued an order on December 26 to close the school. A school inspection report submitted by a department official too confirmed the allegations.

After the news of the school's closure spread on social media on Friday, the officials hastily withdrew the order. DDPI Shreeshail Biradar confirmed that the order was withdrawn by BEO MB Ballanavar. "The school reopened on Friday," he said.

Ballanavar had stated in the order that the school was being closed indefinitely for Christmas in violation of 'rules', which were not mentioned in the order.

"You have served meat in the classrooms during Christmas celebrations on December 25. This has led to embarrassment to the public and the department. You have to keep the school closed till further orders. Legal action will be taken if you reopen the school without permission," he had said.

Earlier, Pradeep Amarannanavar, convenor of 'Pro-Hindu organisations', had lodged a complaint with Tahsildar K Rathna. He had alleged that the school was trying to convert the students and parents. "The school management invited students and parents to school for Christmas on December 25 and offered them lunch with meat and wine. The school authorities also preached the gathering about Christianity with a bid to convert them," alleged Amarannanavar, citing a school inspection report submitted by Education Coordinator IM Angadi.

The complaint named Principal Silvia D Marc and members of school development management committee Jackson D Marc and Umesh Nayak Harapanahalli. Jackson D Marc said, "The school is not run by Christian missionaries. It is run by some residents of Ilkal. The school panel includes members from all faiths and also, the school has students irrespective of religion. The lunch was not hosted on campus."

HISTORY CANNOT BE ERASED BY RENAMING PUBLIC MONUMENTS

The New Year comes with the promise of a new beginning despite the challenges ahead. Perhaps reinvigorated with the spirit of the time, the BJP has gone into an overdrive in Andhra Pradesh. A fringe party in the state, it has been making noises ever since the TDP's debacle in the 2019 elections to emerge as the main opposition party. However, the party leaders' words haven't exactly been matched with equal efforts on the ground, at least not enough to displace the main opposition. Leaving the past behind, it appears keen on turning its fortunes around in 2022.

But it has started on the wrong foot. State BJP chief Somu Veerraju's public appeal to cast votes for the party in return for seriously cheap liquor reeks of desperation. His defence that his intention was only to help save some money for the poor doesn't cut it. Not stopping at that, the party has kicked up another controversy demanding that the historical Jinnah tower in Guntur be renamed. In normal circumstances, maybe, the demand would have carried some weight. The tower dates back to the mid-1940s and in quite an Indian fashion, the Mahatma Gandhi road leads to the Jinnah memorial. It is a standing testimony to history. One could argue, as do the BJP leaders, that we can't have a historical structure in the name of a man responsible for the Partition and deaths of countless numbers of people. From their perspective, it seems renaming is equal to reclaiming our identity and pride from the distortions of history. In a way, it is also akin to the cancel culture in the US. There can be no end to this. Tomorrow, you'll have to rename hospitals, buildings, etc., named after the Brits.

The Indian identity is rather complicated. History cannot be obliterated from public memory by renaming monuments or sanitising history books. The Soviets tried when they played havoc in Eastern Europe—which added to the memory vs history debate. The collective memory of a people is far more enduring than anything. This, by the way, is the reason why efforts such as whitewashing Aurangzeb's misdeeds lack credibility. If BJP leaders aren't convinced, they can take a lesson on Jinnah from veteran leader L K Advani.

TN'S POWER SECTOR NEEDS A REFORM PUSH

Tamil Nadu Generation and Distribution Corporation (TANGEDCO) has approached the state electricity regulatory commission for permission to procure an additional 1,500 MW of electricity through the central utility, Power Trading Corporation to meet the surging demand in the summer. The state's average daily demand is expected to jump up to 17,000 MW in summer, up from around 14,000 MW now. It is necessary to tie up with private producers and electricity exchanges to meet the demand as the state continues to grapple with disruptions in fuel supply and technical snags in generation units, and stares at a drop in production. Recently, consumers were complaining about voltage fluctuations and power cuts. TANGEDCO has initiated a major drive to change transformers and improve the quality of electricity supplied.

But these measures are not adequate to solve the woes plaguing TN's electricity sector. More than 11 years after the erstwhile Tamil Nadu Electricity Board (TNEB) was officially split, it's still under one umbrella. TNEB was reorganised into one holding company, TNEB Ltd, and two loss-making, debt-ridden subsidiary companies—TANGEDCO and Tamil Nadu Transmission Corporation Ltd (TANTRANSCO). For some reasons, the latter is still part of TANGEDCO and doesn't function as an independent body. Electricity distribution is not hived off into a separate company yet.

The fact is that there are 3.16 crore power connections, making TN one of the states with the largest consumer base. Run professionally, a distribution company can definitely make profit. Streamlining domestic connections is important since several consumers enjoy free electricity under the hut service scheme, with many of them using multiple connections. In order to beef up revenues, TNEB should implement a postpaid smart meter system. Similarly, to reduce production cost, it should abandon some of the old thermal plants. It also needs to promote renewable energy sources such as solar and wind. Most importantly, the power tariff is awaiting an upward revision after the last hike in 2014.

Although domestic demand remained at a low ebb, the economy was kept buoyed by strong export growth. The current fiscal may end with trade playing an important growth trigger

INDIA'S EXPORT PERFORMANCE MAY SAVE ITS ECONOMY

After being impacted severely by the Covid-19 pandemic and recording the worst contraction of its economy in 2020-21, there were high expectations that India's economy would record a V-shaped recovery during the current year. However, in the three quarters of 2021 for which growth numbers are available, it is evident that sustained growth is still eluding the economy. As a result, the country's GDP continued to be below the pre-Covid level. The lack of recovery was largely because domestic demand was sluggish, with private final consumption expenditure, the mainstay of GDP, continuing to remain depressed through this phase of recovery.

Although domestic demand remained at a low ebb, the Indian economy was kept buoyed by strong export growth or foreign demand. Imports had bounced back even more, but mainly on account of rising commodity prices. More significantly, India's trade to GDP level had crossed the 50% mark, the first time it had done so since 2013-14. Given its strong performance, there is every possibility that the current fiscal year will end with trade playing an important growth trigger for the economy.

India's export performance has never been better than that seen in 2021. In the first 11 months of the year, exports exceeded $354 billion, over $57 billion (or 19.2%) higher than the previous best for the same period, which was achieved in 2019. Imports, too, have touched a record high of $513 billion, almost 9% above the previous high of $472 billion in 2018. Importantly, higher imports could well be the signs that the economy is on-course for a sustained recovery in 2022.

Encouraged by the rapid expansion of exports in the earlier months of the year, the government had set an export target of $400 billion for the fiscal year 2021-22. In the first eight months of the current fiscal (April-November 2021), exports had reached well over $263 billion, exceeding the previous high for this period by almost 22%. Although in November, exports were at their lowest level during this fiscal year, there is every likelihood that the $400 billion target will easily be reached.

India's exports to most of its major destinations touched record levels during 2021. Exports to the largest destination, the United States, increased by almost a third as compared to the level in 2019 to $58.7 billion. Even more impressive was India's exports to China, the third largest destination, where the increase was more than 42% during the same period. Bangladesh emerged in the top five export destinations for the first time; India's exports to its neighbour increased by over 67% when compared with the 2019 figures. However, exports to the second largest export destination, namely the United Arab Emirates, declined in the midst of the overall surge.

Backed by its impressive export performance, a confident India is now seeking to forge several free trade agreements (FTAs). This is a complete turnaround from 2019, when India had walked out of the Regional Comprehensive Economic Partnership (RCEP), the mega-regional trade agreement of East Asia

Backed by this impressive export performance, a confident India is now seeking to forge several free trade agreements (FTAs). This is a complete turnaround from 2019, when India had walked out of the Regional Comprehensive Economic Partnership (RCEP), the mega-regional trade agreement of East Asia.

The first of India's FTAs could be with the UAE, which was once its largest export destination. However, with the decrease in India's oil imports, trade with the UAE has lost momentum over the past several years. As the major gateway to the Gulf and, more importantly, the African continent, increase in trade ties with the Arab nation could provide further buoyancy to India's exports.

India has also begun discussions for a possible FTA with the United Kingdom, which is seeking to overcome the handicap it could suffer in the post-Brexit phase by rapidly forging close trade links with partner countries. Since it left the European Union less than two years back, the UK has already formalised 40 FTAs with its trade partners. It is showing similar urgency to formalise an FTA with India and therefore, the New Year could well see heightened engagement between the two countries for closer trade relations.

The government has also indicated that it would seek to conclude the long-stalled FTA negotiations with the European Union, Australia, Canada and Israel, thus signalling that 2022 could well become the year of FTAs for India.

For several years, speculation has been rife about a possible FTA between the US and India. But the dealings of the Trump administration with India, especially the withdrawal of the GSP preferences that India had enjoyed since the inception of the scheme and the initiation of the tariff war, resulted in a trust deficit that could not be bridged. However, the Biden administration is appearing to be in a conciliatory mood, as was evident from the recent visit of the US Trade Representative, Katherine Tai. This may well be the first steps for a possible FTA between the two countries.

CHOLAS & THE STANDARDISATION OF CURRENCY UNITS

MADHUSUDHANAN KALAICHELVAN

Architect and Heritage Enthusiast

A significant increase in trade and commerce, detailed information on duties and cess, and well-maintained overseas trade were all made possible under the Cholas through their precise detailing of weights and measurement units. Chanakya in his Artha Sastra emphasised on accounting trade activities with a fixed unit of measurement alongside a monetary denomination. The value of money was fixed on the measure of metal that goes into making the coins. This system of standardisation of measurement units against an assigned value for money was fine-tuned during the imperial Chola rule.

The earliest reference to weight measurement comes from epigraphic records of Parantaka I, where kalanju and manjadi are the standard units of weight measure. In theory, a manjadi in weight equals 72 normal sized paddy grains. Coins casted in copper or other alloys with minimum traceable quantity of precious metals like gold have been minted to weigh close to the standard weight.

During the 10th century CE, pon was used as an equivalent to kalanju in full weight as gold. This unit is referred to as madurantaka-devan madai. It yielded the same interest as kalanju and was also used as a standard unit for testing the quality of gold. Another popular unit used for mentioning monetary value is kasu. There are references starting from the times of Aditya II (10th century CE) equating twenty kasus to ten kalanju-s. Rajaraja I issued what was called rajarajan kasu which was equal to half of madai. Different issues are classified in epigraphy based on the prefixes like rajarajan kasu, rajendhra cholan madai, etc.

Coins minted in fine gold were in use. From whatever has been discovered so far, gold coins were thin disc shaped ones that carried the insignia in the centre with title of the king and the regnal year punched around the perimeter. The other side is left blank. Titles like gangai-konda-cholan (Rajendra I), malai-nadu-konda-cholan (Rajadhiraja I) are used to denote the period of issuing the coin.

Parantaka I's invasion of the Pandya country and Sri Lanka had the scope for absorbing numismatic designs from the coins of the erstwhile Sri Lankan kingdom. These coins had an amorphic standing image on one side and the other side had an image seated. There are other coins with the traditional seated tiger, fish and bow emblem adopted by the Cholas that were minted and in circulation. It is interesting to note that Sri Lankan standards were chosen to be used by the imperial Cholas much before the times of Rajaraja I.

It was post Rajaraja I's time, with the expansion of the empire through planned conquests, that the currency system of the Cholas spread across their territory. It is even more interesting to note that Rajaraja I's coins were discovered in regions beyond his territory. The socio-political changes that happened from the times of Kulothunga I had its impact in the issuing of coins too. Several coins carrying the name of feudatories and their titles started finding a mention in Chola inscriptions. This can be clearly viewed as a sign of the downfall of economic control that the imperial Chola had on their feudatories. Names like jaya-mada, uththama-gandan-mada, chamara-mada, biruda-mada, bhujabala-mada found mentions in their respective regional Chola inscriptions.

Coins minted in fine gold were in use. Gold coins were found to bethin disc shaped ones that carried the insignia in the centre with title of the king and the regnal year punched around the perimeter. The other side is left blank. ... It was post Rajaraja I's time, with the expansion of the empire through planned conquests, that the currency system of the Cholas spread across their territory

Gold and silver ratio used in minting these coins is derived from a Kulothunga I period inscription. Roughly 433 kalanju-s of silver formed the equivalent of 100 kasu-s. In that case a kalanju of gold was equal to 8.66 kalanju-s of silver.

Much later, after the times of Kulothunga III, the alloy had more copper, reducing the value drastically. While a few pazhankaasu (old coins) were enough to endow the burning of a lamp, 9,000 current kasu-s were required to endow a perpetual one in the temple. An inscription from the 20th regnal year of Rajendra III states that a kalanju of gold was equal to 411 7/13 kasu-s.

Thus, an attempt to standardise currency units has started from Parantaka I's time, with his victory over Sri Lanka serving as inspiration. However, the existence of a currency system even before that cannot be denied too. But it was during the expansion of the empire under the kingship of Rajaraja I that coins with names, royal insignia and titles came out in abundance. Till date, Chola numismatic studies are split into pre- and post-Rajaraja times. His coins, found in faraway territories and those released in Sri Lanka, find a special mention. Similar to the downfall in its glory, the mighty Chola Empire slowly started losing their economic control during the last phase of their rule. The feudatories released independent coins with their names and titles on it. After the downfall, the large availability of coins from the Chola mint continued to be used in local transactions. The imagery that Chola currencies had is seen from the fact that the mould design continued to be used centuries after their rule came to a close too.

Hope for brighter new year

The past year was one of tragedies, causing panic worldwide. The pandemic has taught us many health awareness lessons. The Union and state governments worked hard to protect the citizens and the environment as much as they could. We hope for 2022 to be a brighter year.

Confronting known enemy

The new year brings with it hope and trepidation for all in varying degrees. Although the threat of the Omicron variant is looming before us, we have the advantage of confronting a known enemy, unlike in the previous years. On the political front, the five upcoming state polls will be a reliable forecast as to which way the wind will flow in the coming years.

Improve road & drain infra

Chennai and parts of coastal Tamil nadu have been experiencing sudden disastrous rains for the past couple of days and one wonders what the government has been doing to tackle this kind of situation. Instead of giving freebies like Pongal bonanzas to woo voters, the government should have worked on road and drain infrastructure issues. One hopes the CM's recent dashboard initiative will fetch positive results for a proper drainage system.

Preserve the good relations

This is with reference to Shun vendetta, need fair probe in Kerala (Dec 31). The unfortunate incident at Kizhakkambalam involving Kitex workers requires a thorough probe. As the editorial suggests, there should not be any personal vendetta against Sabu M Jacob. The incident is a law and order issue, not a labour one. Only those responsible should be punished. The good relations with guest labourers should not be eroded.

Dr M Haneef, Kottayam

Cooperate with each other

The ill treatment of Sabu M Jacob by certain ministers and officials in the Kerala government created resentment in the Kitex Group, leading the chairman to take a decision to shift a major part of the business to neighbouring states. The discontent surrounding this issue could have been one of the triggers for the Christmas Day violence by the migrant workers. All parties need to shun vendetta and cooperate with each other to allow things to come to normalcy. An impartial probe is needed as well.

What about poll rallies?

While conveying that it is not inclined to defer the election dates for the UP Assembly polls, the Election Commission has made it evident that it is bowing to the wishes of the political parties. However, the issue of mammoth election rallies has not been addressed. This is unfortunate, as these rallies addressed by the prime minister, home minister, UP chief minister and opposition leaders are clearly superspreaders as lakhs of people attend them without following Covid protocols. A blanket ban on huge rallies was the least that was expected from the EC.

Fitting punishment needed

It is in the fitness of things that seer Kalicharan Maharaj has been held for his derogatory remarks against Mahatma Gandhi and arrested in Madhya Pradesh, where he was hiding in a rented room in a small village about 24 km from Khajuraho under a false name. It's clear he is a fugitive trying to dodge the police. He should be incarcerated for such utterances against the father of the nation. One hopes the due process of law comes up with a fitting punishment.

K'taka govt's decision good

The Karnataka government's decision to introduce a Bill soon to free temples from its control is a welcome move. This way, the revenue generated can be used for developing these religious places. When the government has no control over religious places of other communities, why should it regulate only Hindu places of worship?

India's vaccination venture short of year-end target

Having started with the aim of inoculating entire adult population with both doses by December 31, drive nearly 25% behind that mark

Rahul slams govt for target miss

Congress leader Rahul Gandhi on Friday slammed the Modi government for not fulfilling its 'promise' to fully vaccinate all eligible beneficiaries against COVID-19 by the end of the year. The government had told Supreme Court in June that it expected the entire eligible population to be vaccinated against Covid-19 by end of the year. "The Centre had promised to vaccinate everyone with two doses of vaccines by end of 2021. Today, the year comes to an end. The country is still away from the vaccine. Another rhetoric bites the dust," Rahul said on Twitter. As on Friday afternoon, over 144.67 crore doses of vaccines had been administered across the country. More than 84.51 crore beneficiaries have received the first dose.

SUMI SUKANYA DUTTA @New Delhi

THE Centre, though leading a Covid-19 vaccination drive that many term 'highly successful', has missed the target of fully inoculating India's adult population by the year end, an aim that many experts believed was "over ambitious".

As on December 31, over 64% of the adult population in India had received both doses against coronavirus and more than 90% had received at least one dose. As India's adult population is estimated to be around 94 crore, this means a shortfall of over 25% in terms of doses given.

Several functionaries in the Narendra Modi government, including many ministers, had in May-June said that full vaccination in India will be completed by December. Those who have been part of the country's policy making on Covid-19 and also seen the immunisation programme said the target seemed unrealistic.

"For long, there was a major supply crisis which hindered the vaccination programme and when it was sorted to a large extent, the demand started going down," said a member of the national Covid-19 task force, who did not want to be quoted. Data support what he said. While Serum Institute of India now produces between 12.5 and 15 crore doses a month, Bharat Biotech which produces Covaxin makes nearly 5 to 6 crore doses a month, nearly four times what they were producing before August.

Followed by Covidshield, Covaxin has been a significant player in India's vaccination drive that began in January, while the Russian made Sputnik V played a very small role.

None of the other Covid-19 vaccines — that government authorities had projected for the country between August and December — have been available for public use. Vaccines by Johnson and Johnson and Zydus Cadila, for instance, had received regulatory approval months back but are still to be launched in India.

Very recently, the Central Drugs Standard Control Organisation approved for emergency use two more vaccines — Corbevax by Biological E and Novavax by SII — but these will be available only in the coming weeks.

A look at the vaccination graph in the country shows that while the average daily vaccinations increased rapidly since late August, since mid-October, more second doses have been given than first doses, indicating that the demand for vaccination has been going down.

Daily doses administered have been fluctuating, with the highest number achieved on PM Modi's birthday on September 17, when over 2 crore jabs were administered. The country has not been able to achieve that since. While the average for September was around 81 lakh doses a day, it fell to 54 lakh in October and 57 lakh in November. Many public health specialists said that if the September momentum had been kept up, India could have been closer to the target.

Gateway of India in Mumbai wears a deserted look on Friday following fresh restrictions imposed due to rising Covid cases | PTI

5pm-5am public place ban in Mumbai

SUDHIR SURYAWANSHI @ Mumbai

MAHARASHTRA logged 8,067 fresh Covid-19 cases on the last day of 2021, with over 5,428 of these in Mumbai alone, prompting the state government to impose more restrictions with effect from January 1.

A maximum of 50 people will be allowed at social, cultural and political gathering as against 250 at open-air venues and 200 at closed-door functions earlier. For funeral, only 20 people will be allowed.

"Local authorities such as respective district collectors and municipal commissioners in urban areas are empowered to impose more stringent measures in view of the rising Covid-19 cases," said a senior government official.

Mumbai Police issued an order prohibiting people from gathering at the beaches, sea faces and other public places from 5 pm to 5 am till January 15. Briefing the media, minister Vijay Wadettiwar of Congress said there seems to be community spread of the infection in pockets of the state, particularly Mumbai and adjoining areas, and mid-January and February are very crucial in view of Omicron spread.

"If people fail to follow Covid-19 protocol, then we will have no options but to impose the lockdown once again in the state to contain the spread of the virus. However, the final decision will be taken by Chief Minister Uddhav Thackeray," Wadettiwar added.

The CM, in his New Year message to the state, said the government was committed to defeating the virus once again and while welcoming the New Year, people should take all precautions and should not be careless while celebrating.

Maharashtra had 24,509 active positive cases on Friday, with 16,441 of these registered in Mumbai alone. The state capital also had the highest 327 of the total 454 Omicron cases in the state. Eight deaths were reported across the state due to the infection in the last 24 hours, including one death in the city of Mumbai.

SII SEEKS FULL MARKET APPROVAL

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

SERUM Institute of India, the maker Covishield, on Friday announced it had applied for full market approval of the vaccine, saying there is enough data for complete authorisation of the vaccine.

The Pune-based company is manufacturing the vaccine in India, originally developed by Oxford University-AstraZeneca, through a deal on technology transfer and marketing in most of the developing nations. Its CEO Adar Poonawalla said the firm has supplied over 1.25 billion doses in India so far.

"Supplies of the Covishield vaccine in India have exceeded 1.25 billion doses. The government of India now has enough data for full market authorisation, and therefore Serum Institute has applied to the Central Drugs Standard Control Organisation and Union health ministry for this permission," wrote Poonawalla on Twitter. In India over 145 crore jabs have been administered and 90% of these have been Covishield.

CM'S CHOICE

Bihar gets its first chief secy from the minorities

RAMASHANKAR @ Patna

CHIEF minister Nitish Kumar appointed 1987-batch IAS officer Amir Sabhani as the chief secretary of Bihar. He will replace Tripurari Sharan, whose term came to an end on Friday.

Subhani was the topper of his batch. He is Bihar's first chief secretary belonging to the minority community. Considered close to CM Nitish, Subhani's appointment has not gone down well in the BJP circles.

A BJP leader, who did not wish to be named, said the CM has shown his 'love' for the minority community by appointing Subhani chief secretary, highest post in the state's bureaucracy. Though Nitish wanted Subhani as chief secretary earlier, he could not do it because of 'pressure' and 'objections', said the BJP leader said.

He, however, admitted that Subhani, a native of Siwan district, is known as an honest and upright officer. "On many occasions, he has shown his acumen and proved as face saver for the government," he added.

Subhani's batch-mate Atul Prasad has been made development commissioner, the post held earlier by Subhani. Prasad was earlier posted as additional chief secretary of social welfare department. Talking to media, the new chief secretary said, "Bihar is progressing by meeting many challenges."

MP records 77 COVID-19 cases, no death

Bhopal: The Covid-19 case tally in Madhya Pradesh rose to 7,93,965 on Friday with the detection of 77 new infections, a health department official said. With no new fatality being reported, the official death toll remained unchanged at 10,533. The recovery count stood at 7,83,025 after 19 people were discharged from hospitals during the day, leaving the state with 407 active cases. With 61,361 samples being examined during the day, the number of coronavirus tests conducted in MP went up to 2,36,88,801. A government release said a total of 10,23,86,621 Covid-19 vaccine doses have been administered so far in the state. ENS

Bihar reports first case of Omicron infection

Patna: Bihar recorded the first case of Omicron variant of coronavirus after a 26-year-old man tested positive late on Thursday, setting the alarm bells ringing in the state health department. The victim had gone to New Delhi to meet his brother, who had returned from abroad recently. Additional chief secretary of health department Sanjay Kumar Singh said the test report of a resident of Patna's Kidwaipuri locality (IAS Colony) confirmed the first case of Omicron in the state. The health department team soon started tracing the people, who had come in contact with the infected man. ENS

CDS copter crash report expected in 10-15 days

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

THE Court of Inquiry (CoI) report by the tri-service team investigating the IAF Mi-14V5 helicopter crash in which CDS General Bipin Rawat, his wife Madhulika Rawat and 12 others died on December 8 has been forwarded for legal vetting. It will take around 10-15 days before it is finalised.

IAF had ordered the inquiry, with Air Marshal Manavendra Singh as its head. He is the Commander of IAF's training command and a chopper pilot himself. He is assisted by two Brigadier-rank officers from the army and navy.

CDS Bipin Rawat and others were on board when the chopper crashed near Coonoor in Tamil Nadu's Nilgiris district. While the CDS, his wife and 11 others lost their lives in the accident, Group Captain Varun Singh eventually succumbed to his injuries at a Bengaluru hospital on December 15.

The crashed helicopter's 'black box,' containing the cockpit voice recorder (a device that records audio communications) and the flight data recorder (which saves the history of the flight) were recovered and examined to seek insights into the tragedy.

Explaining the process. Air Commodore Prashant Dixit (retd) said this exercise of legal vetting is followed in every inquiry because issues may come up once the findings are made public. "The possibilities which are mainly looked into are pilot error, material error, machine error and possibility of external interference. The findings may draw legal proceedings, thus this exercise is carried out."

Another source said legal opinion is important as it will be talking about the ground rules and terms of reference and whether the evidence collected is admissible in court. "This report will bring final closure to the matter and it may also lead to some changes within the department in forms of advisories for future, so these evaluations are followed meticulously."

Seven home tests approved so far

IF the caseload rises above a certain threshold, RT-PCR testing would lead to delays in confirming diagnosis due to its turnaround time of about 5-8 hours, hence the RAT advisory. "RATs may be allowed at government and private health-care facilities, including all hospitals, dispensaries, nursing homes, clinics, district hospitals, primary health centres. No accreditation is required for undertaking RAT by any healthcare facility."

While advising states to fully utilise the existing molecular testing capacity, the Centre asked them expedite procurement of testing equipment and establish BSL-2 lab infrastructure from funds sanctioned by the Union health ministry under the emergency Covid-19 response plan.

Also, self or home tests can be encouraged. Seven such home tests have been approved in India so far.

Denied bail, seer finds 'right' support

EJAZ KAISER & HARPREET BAJWA @ Raipur/Chandigarh

A court in Raipur on Friday rejected the bail petition filed by lawyers of Hindu seer Kalicharan, who will be in judicial custody till January 13. He found some support nonetheless, with a Hindu group in Gurugram taking out a march demanding his release.

Kalicharan was arrested for making derogatory remarks against Mahatma Gandhi and praising his assassin Nathuram Godse at a Dharam Sansad in Raipur on December 26. The bail application was moved before the court of judicial magistrate first class, where Judge Chetna Thakur remanded him to judicial custody for two weeks. Further hearing of his case would be held in the sessions court owing to the sedition charge the accused is facing.

In Gurugram, a right wing Hindu group led by its leader Kulbhushan Bhardwaj demanded Kalcharan be released and shouted slogans saying "Godse amar rahe (long live Godse)."

Members of the group gathered opposite the residence of the Deputy Commissioner and marched towards the Mini Secretariat raising slogans, "Sadhu-aanto ka apman nahi sahega Hindustan (seers should not be insulted)."

After reaching the Mini Secretariat, they submitted a memorandum demanding Kalicharan's release and arrest of AIMIM MP Asaduddin Owaisi for making derogatory remarks against the police. They also said any policeman arresting Owaisi will be rewarded ₹22 lakh.

"He had insulted police officials recently at an election rally in Uttar Pradesh. He had said the police should remember that Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath and Prime Minister Narendra Modi will not always be there (to protect them)," said Bhardwaj.

Eminent citizens slam hate speeches in Haridwar, Delhi

MAYANK SINGH @ New Delhi

OVER 200 citizens including five former services chiefs, social activist, ambassadors and bureaucrats have written an open letter to President Ram Nath Kovind and PM Narendra Modi, expressing concern over recent events in Haridwar, Delhi and elsewhere, where calls for "genocide of Indian Muslims" were made and other minorities were targeted.

The letter writers called upon the "Government, Parliament and Supreme Court to act with urgency to protect the integrity and security" of the country. "We are perturbed by the content of speeches made during a religious conclave called a Dharma Sansad, of Hindu sadhus and other leaders, held at Haridwar. There were repeated calls for establishing a Hindu state and, if required, picking up weapons and killing India's Muslims in the name of protecting Hinduism," the open letter stated.

Signatories of the letter include former Navy chiefs — Admirals Laxminarayan Ramdas, Vishnu Bhagwat, Arun Prakash, RK Dhowan — and former IAF Chief SP Tyagi. "We cannot allow such incitement to violence together with public expressions of hate, which not only constitute serious breaches of internal security, but which could also tear apart the social fabric of our nation," added the statement.

"The Constitution provides for free practice of religion across faiths. We deplore such polarisation in the name of religion." Urging political leaders to condemn these acts, they said politicians should refrain from using religion in politics.

NAMITA BAJPAI @ Lucknow

AFTER the DGGI raids on Kanpur businessman Piyush Jain, the Income Tax department carried out raids at 35 different locations belonging to perfume baron and Samajwadi Party MLC Pushpraj Jain 'Pampi' on Friday. Raids were also done on another Kannauj-based perfume dealer Fauzan Malik, who owns the firm called Mohammad Yakub Perfume.

Searches were made at Lucknow, Kanpur, Kannauj, the National Capital Region (NCR), Delhi and Mumbai based on specific inputs of tax evasion, sources said, adding the focus was on those who were involved in the business of perfumery.

Incidentally, Jain, 65, had launched 'Samajwadi ittra' (perfume) last month in the presence of SP president Akhilesh Yadav. As news of the raids surfaced, the Samajwadi Party's Twitter handle began posting condemnation and accusing BJP of misusing central agencies in the run-up to the state election.

"After the huge failure of last time, this time BJP's ally I-T has finally raided SP MLC Shri Pushpraj Jain and other perfume traders of Kannauj. Open misuse of central agencies by the scared BJP is common in UP elections. The people are watching everything, they will answer with their vote," it tweeted.

In Delhi, Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman asserted that the nearly ₹200 crore cash seized from Jain was not BJP money. The I-T raids were at the correct address and not by an outcome of 'knocking at wrong door', she said in a dig at the opposition party.

As per the sources, Pushpraj Jain was linked to around 18 firms and companies. He is a director on the board of Pragati Aroma Oil Distillers Pvt Ltd which he formed in 1989 with Atulkumar Sawailal Jain, Prabhatchandra Sawailal Jain, Pankaj Sawailal Jain and Pushpraj Sawailal Jain as directors.

Malik runs his factory from his house located in Kannauj. Believed to be one of the oldest perfume manufacturing firms, his units are located in Lucknow and Mumbai as well. Fauzan is said to be exporting perfumes to Gulf countries.

BJP trying to tarnish image of SP, says Akhilesh

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Lucknow

DRAWING parallels between the BJP and the propaganda ministry of Adolf Hitler, Samajwadi Party chief Akhilesh Yadav on Friday accused the ruling party of spreading falsehood by linking his party with Piyush Jain, the jailed Kanpur businessman, to tarnish its image.

Denying any association with the businessman who was raided by the DGGI recently, Akhilesh said BJP leaders right from Lucknow to Delhi were lying to people by linking the jailed businessman with his party. The SP chief also urged the Election Commission to direct the central agencies to carry out raids after the Assembly polls as they lead to tarnishing of the image of the party whose supporters are raided.

Akhilesh claimed the ruling BJP, in alliance with central agencies, was targetting SP leaders and supporters as it was "smelling its ouster" in the upcoming elections. He also said that the ruling party was rectifying its mistake of raiding its "own man Piyush Jain" in place of Pushpraj Jain.

To defame the SP, all BJP leaders had been telling lies from their dais about the IT raids conducted earlier in Kanpur. Hitler had a department of propaganda but the BJP has a government of propaganda

Amid rising poll heat, Covid tests falling in Punjab

Pollitical Pulse

HARPREET BAJWA @ Chandigarh

EVEN as Covid infections are on the rise in poll-bound Punjab, daily testing is nowhere near the minimum 40,000 mark set up by the state government despite several notices asking field workers to achieve the target. The Election Commission is likely to announce the Assembly election schedule for five states soon while there have been demands from various quarters to postpone the polls.

What makes the Punjab's situation alarming is that the Centre had advised the state to conduct at least 50,000 tests daily. Incidentally, the highest daily testing was recorded at 82,000 in Punjab during the second wave of the Covid pandemic in the country.

A look at the first half of December shows that the number of tests ranged between a minimum of 17,776 on December 7 to maximum of 31,370 on December 3. The figures dived to yo-yo between 7,000 and slightly above 27,500 in the second half. The most dismal performance was logged on December 27 with only 7,225 tests.

Meanwhile, there have been 221, 167 and 100 fresh cases on Friday, Thursday, Wednesday. In fact, the Wednesday figure was the first time that fresh cases touched the 100-mark in ten weeks.

Positivity rate is also up correspondingly at 1.42, 1.10 and 0.62 per cent. On the vaccination front, 89,127; 81,755 and 62,197 people were vaccinated in the same period.

In a recent meeting, health officials apprised Deputy CM-cum-Health Minister OP Soni Soni that the positivity rate hovered at 0.3 per cent and had slightly gone up in the past few days.

Principal Secretary, Health, Raj Kamal Chaudhary said the government has approached 12,05,069 households under the Ghar Ghar Dastak campaign. As many as 84 per cent people got the first dose, he said.

Helicopter, camera, cooker among symbols on EVM in upcoming polls

KUMAR VIKRAM @ New Delhi

PEOPLE may find symbols like helicopter, mike, camera, pressure cooker and many others while pressing button on the electronic voting machines in the upcoming Assembly polls.

Dozens of registered unrecognised political parties are in fray in the poll battle in Uttar Pradesh, Uttrakhand, Punjab, Goa and Manipur.

On December 30 the Election Commission allotted symbols to 13 such parties and nine of them are contesting polls in UP. Similarly, on December 24 as many as 17 unrecognised parties were allotted symbols such as ring, diamond, bench, football and others and 10 of them will be fighting the UP polls. Before that, the poll panel had provided symbols to 12 such parties and 11 out of them are battling out in UP.

Apart from national parties and recognised regional parties, maximum unrecognised political parties are contesting UP election. Some of these include Jan Pragati Party, Sarvjan Awaj party, Kisan Raksha party, Laukik Samaj Party and others.

While symbols are reserved for national and state parties, unrecognised parties and independent candidates have to choose from the 'free symbols' to fight elections. As per a notification, there was a list of 197 available symbols.

An independent candidate or someone contesting on behalf of an unrecognised party has to approach the ECI for a symbol. As per rules, a candidate has to provide three symbols from the free list at the time of submission of nomination papers.

There are eight national parties and 54 recognised state parties. The poll panel on September 23 notified the updated list of parties that included 2,796 registered unrecognised parties. However, it has been observed that a majority of them doesn't contest polls. Notably, only 673 parties had participated in the 2019 Lok Sabha polls. Moreover, there have been concerns that unrecognised parties may be collecting donations and using them for other purposes.

Didi overrules nephew choices for civic polls

PRANAB MONDAL @ Kolkata

IN the upcoming civic polls, TMC supremo Mamata Banerjee has decided to rely on time-tested names rather than fielding fresh faces purportedly suggested by her nephew Abhishek Banerjee and election strategist Prashant Kishor.

"Since Abhishek has emerged as the second-in-command in the party, he and Kishor wanted to engage more young faces but the suggestion was turned down by Mamata Banerjee," said a TMC leader.

Sources in the TMC said Abhishek wanted to induct new faces as candidates in the election as part of a strategy to prepare the party's next set of leaders. "We are enjoying absolute dominance in the Assembly. It seems, our party will rule the state for at least next one decade and eyeing this, Abhishek gave the suggestion of inducting fresh faces," said another TMC leader.

Polls in Siliguri, Asansol, Chandernagore and Bidhannagar are scheduled on January 22. Siiliguri is in north Bengal where the BJP performed impressively in the Assembly polls. The party had won Asansol LS seat in 2019.

ROADSHOW EFFECT

All is not well between ex-CM & Guj BJP chief

DILIP SINGH KSHATRIYA @ Ahmedabad

SOMETHING was amiss at the mega roadshow in Rajkot on Friday to mark the culmination of the Good Governance Week in Gujarat. CM Bhupendra Patel and the BJP's state president C R Patil were in the hometown of former CM Vijay Rupani for the roadshow, but Rupani didn't show up until Patil had left midway, leading to speculation in the state's political circles that all's not well between the former CM and his party's Gujarat chief.

While the CM stood on his seat in an open jeep during the entire roadshow from Rajkot Airport to Dharmendrasinhji College, Patil, who had flagged off the vehicles from the airport, left before they reached the college. It was only after Patil had left that Rupani suddenly appeared on the scene.

This was the second time Rupani was absent in Patil's presence. Earlier, the former CM had chosen to be in Surat during the state president's Rajkot tour. This time, BJP sources said Rupani was out of town when the CM and Patil arrived at his hometown for the roadshow, and showed up after he returned later. The sources added that Rupani is annoyed with Patil as he believes the latter played a big role in forcing his resignation from the post of CM by complaining about him to the central leadership.

The BJP had announced a day before the Rajkot roadshow that Rupani would be involved in it. Due to Rupani staying away so long as Patil was there, talk of factionalism has resurfaced.

Earlier, when Rupani was CM and was asked at a press conference about the availability of Remdesivir injections at the BJP state headquarters, he had angrily replied, "Only C R Patil can answer that question."

On being asked about what happened at Rajkot, BJP spokesperson Yagnesh Dave said, "Vijaybhai (Rupani) has no resentment. If that were the case, he could have said it when he left the CM post. He is an MLA and has been present in every party function."

"We definitely feel hurt with the kind of utterances made by them. They are very irresponsible," DGP Dilbagh Singh said in Jammu when asked about criticism of the SIT probe report. ENS

Stocks, cryptos top returns chart of 2021

The controversial crypto Bitcoin has generated the highest return of 2021 at 64% followed by midcap stocks

RAM SAHGAL @Mumbai

THE Nifty and the Sensex topped 20% returns in 2021 and were among the best-performing assets aside from crypto currencies. But, investors who pumped money into midcaps made better returns than those who invested in blue chips.

By ranking, the controversial crypto Bitcoin has generated the highest return of 2021 for resident Indians among six popular assets they invested or traded in. Gold and silver, two other important investment avenues, generated negative returns last year.

The Bitcoin (64% return) was followed by midcap stocks on the returns chart, as reflected by the Nifty Midcap 100 (46%), Nifty 50 (24%), Sensex (22%) and the Bank Nifty (13.5%).

The jury is out on whether cryptos will continue their outperformance with the government yet to pass The Cryptocurrency and Regulation of Official Digital Currency Bill, 2021.

Sebi chief Ajay Tyagi also said recently that the market regulator wouldn't encourage mutual funds to launch new fund offers based on cryptos until the government clears the air on their regulation.

Indians hitherto invested in Bitcoin through domestic mutual funds under the Liberalised Remittance Scheme (LRS) which permits residents, including minors, to invest $250,000 per person per year in specified overseas assets.

On stocks, returns on Nifty could moderate to around 15% in 2022, believes Chandan Taparia, vice president (research), Motilal Oswal Financial Services, amid "rising inflationary expectations" and "probable" rate hikes by RBI and the US Fed next year, which could temper FII inflows.

Sunil Pachisia, head of institutional sales, Pratibhuti Vinihit, expects midcaps to outperform in 2022, given improved earnings and higher investments by fund houses.

"Banks have underperformed the broader market and unless they begin to perform the Nifty returns could lag that of the midcaps in 2022," he added.

ECONOMY SEES STEADY RECOVERY AND NEED TO RAISE TAX - PM

Singapore's economy is recovering steadily and the government sees a need to "start moving" on raising sales tax, its prime minister said on Friday. Singapore's sales tax, known as the GST, has been kept at 7% since 2007. The government first announced that it plans raise GST to 9% in 2018. "We have seen this need coming for some years. Now that our economy is emerging from Covid-19, we have to start moving on this," Lee Hsien Loong said in a New Year message. More details are expected to be announced during the government's 2022 fiscal year budget speech on February, 18. Singapore's economy is likely to expand around 7% this year, marking a recovery from the worst recession induced by the pandemic last year, and grow 3% to 5% in 2022, according to official forecasts. "The year ahead will be a time of transition. Our economy is recovering steadily... We will progressively phase out emergency support measures as businesses revive," Lee said.

SOUTH KOREA

DECEMBER INFLATION AT 3.7%, 2021 RATE AT DECADE HIGH OF 2.5%

South Korea's annual inflation this year outpaced the central bank's current forecasts and soared to a decade-high, proving to policymakers prices are becoming harder to tame and boosting the case for more interest rate hikes in 2022. The average consumer inflation rate for the whole year surged to 2.5%, the fastest since 2011 and up from 0.5% in 2020, government data showed on Friday. That beats the Bank of Korea's 2.3% projection made in November. December consumer prices jumped 3.7% from a year earlier, slightly slowing from a decade-high of a 3.8% rise in November and beating a 3.6% gain tipped in a Reuters survey. On November 25, the BOK raised interest rates for the second time since the pandemic began to 1.00% and revised up it's inflation outlook as concerns about rising household debt and consumer prices grew.

Philippine President Rodrigo Duterte on Thursday signed a 5.024 trillion pesos ($98.45 billion) budget for next year, the Southeast Asian country's largest-ever, as it aims to sustain economic recovery and manage Covid-19 outbreaks. It is the Southeast Asian country's largest ever, as it aims to sustain economic recovery and manage Covid-19 outbreaks. The Philippines is aiming to hit economic expansion rates of 7.0%-9.0% for 2022 and 6.0%-7.0% for both 2023 and 2024 - faster than the upgraded target of 5.0% to 5.5% for this year.

No Extension for the date of IT Return: Revenue secy

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @New Delhi

DISAPPOINTMENT for all the taxpayers who were waiting for the last date to file income tax return to extended as the centre has ruled out extending last date to file income tax return beyond its current deadline of December 31.

Revenue Secretary Tarun Bajaj said December 31, 2021, remains the official deadline for filing of income tax returns and the site is working perfectly as returns filed so far are more than those filed in the previous year.

Bajaj also dismissed the claim of technical glitches on the website and said that all of the glitches are sorted and the website is functioning smoothly. Bajaj added that by 3pm today, 5.62 crore returns have been filed in total. Last year, total 4.93 crore returns were filed. The centre had already extended the last date twice, one from July 31 to September 30 and then again to December 31. Those taxpayers, who missed the bus, will still be able to file the ITR till March 31, 2022, however they have to pay penalty, which is ₹5,000 for income above ₹5 lakh annually.

Earlier the government extended date for taxpayers who have not e-verified their ITRs for the financial year 2019-20, who can now complete the verification process by February 28, 2022.

Fiscal deficit touches 46% of annual target

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @New Delhi

BREACH OF TARGET

Economists believe that the government may have to incur higher expenses in the last quarter of the financial year, breaching the Fiscal deficit target of 6.8

STRONG revenue growth coupled with a tight leash on expenditures has helped the government keep its fiscal deficit at 46% of the budget target in the first eight month of the current financial year.

While the government's revenue collection increased by a whopping 67% in April-November 2021, the government's total expenditure at ₹20.74 lakh crore during the period is just 8.8% more than the total spending during the corresponding period in the previous financial year.

Data released by the Comptroller General of Accounts for the first eight months of the government's finance show that while revenue expenditures, the running cost of the government, have increased by a paltry 8.1%, capital expenditure has increased by 13% or by just ₹32,000 crore to ₹2.73 lakh crore in the first eight months of the 2021-22.

The total revenue receipt of the government till November had reached 13.6 lakh crore, which is 76% of the government's budget target. During the same period last year, the government has managed to mop up 8.1 lakh crore in revenue, including tax, non-tax and capital receipts.

Gross tax collection in April-November 2021 grew at 50% to ₹15.42 lakh crore. However, due to higher release of central tax devolution to the states, the same was not reflected in the net tax collections.

Due to strong revenue collection and a tight leash on expenditures, the central government's fiscal deficit contracted to just ₹6.95 lakh crore April-November 2021 from ₹10.8 lakh crore in the same period last year.

However, economists believe that the government may have to incur higher expenses in the last quarter of the financial year, breaching the Fiscal deficit target of 6.8%.

The government is far short of its disinvestment target of ₹1.75 lakh crore as total proceeds from disinvestment was only ₹9,333 crore.

I-T finds irregularities in two Chinese mobile firms

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @New Delhi

THE Income Tax Department on Friday said two major smartphone companies have made remittance in the nature of royalty, to and on behalf of its group companies located abroad, which aggregates to more than ₹5500 crore. According to sources, the two companies are India's largest smartphone maker Xiaomi and Oppo.

It added the search operation has also brought out the modus operandi of purchase of the components for manufacturing of mobile handsets. "It is gathered that both these companies had not complied with the regulatory mandate prescribed under the Income-tax Act, 1961 for disclosure of transactions with associated enterprises. Such lapse makes them liable for penal action under the Income-tax Act, 1961, the quantum of which could be in the range of more than ₹1000 crore," the Dept said in a statement.

TNIE had earlier reported that Income Tax officials conducted search operations at over a dozen premises of Chinese smartphone companies. Major players such as Oppo, Xiaomi and One Plus were covered in the searches. Meanwhile, the GST Mumbai East Commissionerate of Mumbai Zone, have detected GST Evasion of ₹40.5 crore at WazirX.

The Indian economy grew at 8.4% in the second quarter of the current fiscal, as against a growth of 20.1% in the April-June quarter.

"We are maintaining our forecast of a 9% GDP expansion in FY2022, with a clear K-shaped divergence amongst the formal and informal parts of the economy, and the large gaining at the cost of the small. Crypto Bill and Digital Currency key focus areas in new year

UMA KANNAN @Bengaluru

THE cryptocurrency market in India is booming with an increase in the number of investors and also with new crypto exchanges entering the market. This momentum is likely to continue in 2022. Crypto exchanges hope that 2022 will be a big year for them as they are also awaiting an upcoming Bill that regulates the market.

"The Indian crypto industry is waiting for an official statement from the government. We believe that regulatory clarity will help address misconceptions around crypto asset investing and encourage more Indians to start their crypto investing journey," said Ashish Singhal, Founder and CEO, CoinSwitch Kuber.

CoinSwitch, which turned into a unicorn in 2021, said in 2021, 1.4 crore users spread across 4,000 cities have traded over ₹1.58 lakh crore in crypto assets through its platform. Apart from bitcoin, 2021 saw the metaverse revolution. According to a report by Allied Market Research, the global crypto market size was valued at $1.49 billion in 2020 and it will reach $4.94 billion by 2030 at a CAGR of 12.8%.

NFTs to disrupt industry

Many celebrities are joining the Non-fungible Tokens (NFTs) bandwagon, and NFTs are now becoming a buzzword among investors. "2022 will see a rise in native blockchain protocol. Composable blockchain protocols like Ethereum, Algorand, Solana and Cardano will host new upcoming tokens and projects. The new trend of launching enterprise tokens on blockchain will surely pick up in the coming years and this will boost the creator economy forward," said Sathvik Vishwanath, Co-founder and CEO, Unocoin. He added though NFTs are at infant stage, both retailers and institutions are taking a big interest in them and this trend will get bigger.

Sumit Gupta, Co-founder and CEO of CoinDCX, also said that NFT will continue to be a prominent topic and will disrupt the gaming, art, and creative industries, among others.

"Nations all around the world are looking at the possibility of launching and examining a pilot program for their national digital currency. There's a good chance that 2022 will be the year when other countries create their own CBDCs (Central Bank Digital Currency)," he added.

Nitin Sharma, Partner & Global Blockchain Lead, Antler said, "In Web3 and DeFi, there is a new Internet and a new financial system being built - with DAOs (Decentralised autonomous organisation), crypto, NFTs as the building blocks. The world is now ready for thousands of new founders to leverage this opportunity and create a decentralised Web3 that will take shape within the next 4-5 years."

ISSUES WITH THE SCOOTERS

One consumer said on Twitter last week that his Ola S1 pro, in less than 6km of drive after delivery, has to be towed away for screeching noises and headlight issues. Another consumer's new S1 pro had cracks

AFTER much delay, Ola Electric claims to have dispatched all units of its S1 and S1 Pro electric scooters to its customers. Ola Chairman and Group Executive Officer Bhavish Aggarwal, said on Twitter on Friday that all electric scooters that were scheduled for delivery in December have left its facility.

Ola Electric, one of the newest EV makers in India, began deliveries of its e-scooters from December 15 after numerous delays and extensions. The deliveries started approximately four months after the launch of the scooters took place.

"We've dispatched vehicles to ALL who purchased. Some in transit, most already at delivery centres near you getting through the RTO (regional transport office) registration process. The registration process took longer than we anticipated as a fully digital process is new for all," said Aggarwal.

He added, "Lots of learnings for us on varied RTO systems, regulations across states. Will be faster with registration in future!" Aggarwal also said that the company would be launching the next purchase window for the scooters very soon.

Meanwhile, a number of consumers took on Twitter to complain that they are yet to receive an update on the delivery of the scooters. One twitter user said that he was told to change his booked scooter colour from silver and once he did that there wasn't any update from Ola. A section of consumers who have received deliveries of the scooter are seen pointing out issues with the scooters. A consumer said on Twitter last week that his Ola S1 pro, in less than 6km of drive after delivery, has to be towed away for screeching noises and headlight issues, while another consumer posted pictures of his newly delivered S1 pro which had cracks and dents all over the body.

‘We requested Kohli to reconsider T20 captaincy’

Selectors took the decision to replace Kohli as ODI captain, says chairman of selection committee

VENKATA KRISHNA B @Chennai

THE press conference to announce India’s ODI squad for South Africa series turned into more of an event which saw chairman of the selection committee, Chetan Sharma, attempting to douse the fire with regards to the controversy surrounding the decision to remove Virat Kohli as ODI captain. The end result was Sharma agreed with certain comments that Kohli made against the panel and at the same time, he disagreed with some.

Corroborating what BCCI president Sourav Ganguly stated in an interview, Sharma revealed that the selection panel did have a word with Kohli when he made his decision to step down as T20 captain and asked him to reconsider it. “It was a surprise for everyone to hear him quit T20 captaincy,” Sharma said. “All of us told him to reconsider because we could always discuss it after the World Cup. We felt it could affect the performances in the World Cup. It was told him for the sake of Indian cricket to please continue as captain and rethink his decision. The selectors, convenor (secretary Jay Shah) were there. When he said his decision, we were instantly taken by shock. All we needed was to get done with the World Cup and discuss it later,” Sharma said.

While those comments backed what Ganguly said, Sharma also concurred with Kohli when it came to the decision to not continue with him as a captain in ODIs. That Kohli will find it difficult to keep the ODI team was never in doubt as teams usually don’t have multiple captains for white-ball cricket and Sharma said the decision was taken with the 2023 World Cup in mind. “The decision to quit T20 captaincy was his call. And we as selectors have to think of the ODI team as well. We wanted one captain for white-ball cricket because it will be easy to plan going forward.

And all the selectors were unanimous about the decision and we communicated to him. We had a good conversation with him (Kohli) and even he agreed on to it. We want Kohli to keep getting runs and this team revolves around him. But as selectors we have to think about planning part as well because you cant have two captains in white-ball,” he added. Sharma also revealed that the selection panel only informed the decision to remove him as ODI captain after the World Cup because they didn’t want affect the preparations. “We were in the cusp of the World Cup. We had to cool down things. It was not the right time.” As Kohli revealed before leaving for South Africa, Sharma said the decision to remove him from ODI captaincy was communicated to him when the Test team was announced. With regards to the ODI team, KL Rahul will lead in South Africa after Rohit failed the fitness test.

SQUAD: Rahul (C), Dhawan, Ruturaj, Kohli, Suryakumar, Shreyas, Venkatesh, Pant, Kishan, Chahal, Ashwin, Washington, Bumrah, Bhuvneshwar, Chahar, Prasidh, Thakur, Siraj.

India win Under-19 Asia Cup title

AGENCIES @Dubai

INDIA reaffirmed their supremacy in the U-19 Asia Cup with a record eighth title as they hammered Sri Lanka by nine wickets in a rain-hit summit showdown here on Friday.

The Indian bowlers were all over Sri Lanka, who were gasping at 74 for seven in 33 overs, when heavy rain lashed the Dubai International Cricket Stadium and stopped play for more than two hours.

It became a 38-over-a-side contest when play resumed with Sri Lanka limping to 106 for nine.

India were set a revised 102-run target in 38 overs via DLS method which they reached rather comfortably in 21.3 overs with opener Angkrish Raghuvanshi scoring an unbeaten 56 off 67 balls.

The tournament provided valuable game time for the Yash Dhull-led side ahead of the U-19 World Cup, beginning in the West Indies from January 14.

Brief scores: Sri Lanka Under-19 106/9 in 38 ovs (Ostwal 3-11, Tambe 2-23) lost to India Under-19 104/1 in 21.3 ovs (Raghuvanshi 56 n.o, Rasheed 31 n.o).

Expressways to help take development to the grassroots

The connectivity-enabling infrastructure acts like the arteries of the economy. Good road, rail and air connectivity accelerate movement of the people and goods. Those breathe life into the economy and create opportunities for rapid growth. This is why the Chief Minister, Yogi Adityanath, focused on the expressways and airports for better connectivity within and outside the state.

Knowing that better connectivity in the state will catalyze its economic growth, the Yogi Adityanath government has in its regime during the last 57 months built a network of expressways. As visualized, this initiative is opening new avenues of development in all parts of the state. Inauguration of the 341-km-long Purvanchal Expressway by the Prime Minister Narendra Modi on November 16 last was like putting a stamp of approval on Yogi Adityanath's earnest efforts to give the eastern parts of the state a faster connectivity with Lucknow and other parts of the country. The Purvanchal expressway connects the state capital Lucknow with the far eastern district of Ghazipur. In near future, the Bundelkhand expressway, another dream project of Yogi Adityanath government, shall become functional to make the state run faster on the path of development. The government is also working on three other expressways, viz. the Ganga Expressway, Gorakhpur Link Expressway and Ballia Expressway.

Out of these, 80% work on the Bundelkhand Expressway had been completed by December 13, 2021. The expressway is likely to become partially function by the end of the current year or the first week of the new year. This expressway will speed up the movement between Bundelkhand region and Lucknow as well as the National Capital Region. The state already has Yamuna Expressway between Noida and Agra and Lucknow-Agra Expressway.

Purvanchal Expressway The Path of New India

This six-lane expressway has facilitated easy and faster access between Lucknow and the entire eastern Uttar Pradesh. However, it may be deemed to be giving better connectivity between whole of the eastern India and Lucknow and Delhi. Importance of this expressway will increase with the completion of Gorakhpur Link Expressway and Ballia Link Expressway. The formal foundation laying for the Purvanchal Expressway was done on 14 July 2018 in Azamgarh. The Prime Minister Narendra Modi had laid the foundation stone. The work on the expressway costing Rs 22,500 crore was completed in 39 months, even after the major disruption caused by the Covid-19 pandemic from March 2020.

The Purvanchal Expressway is no ordinary expressway. Its main feature is the 3.2 km long airstrip, on which fighter jets of the Indian Air Force can land in case of emergency. Presently the expressway is 6-lane wide, which may be expanded to 8-lane in future.

The construction of the Purvanchal Expressway within stipulated time in spite of the obstacles caused by the Covid-19 lockdwons must be ascribed only to the commitment of the Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath. He showed personal interest in it and removed all obstacles from its course of completion. Also, it was the first of its kind of project that assured of being highly valuable in rapid development of the eastern Uttar Pradesh that has 'remained neglected in 70 years of independence.' Starting at Chand Sarai in Lucknow district, it passes through Barabanki, Amethi Sultanpur, Ayodhya, Ambedkar Nagar, Azamgarh and Mau districts before terminating in Haidariya village near Ghazipur city.

In the inauguration ceremony of Purvanchal Expressway, Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath pointed out that, 'In spite of the prevailing Covid-19 epidemic, the work of Purvanchal Expressway was completed in three years. Now it will become the lifeline of development of Eastern Uttar Pradesh." This shows his concern and commitment for inclusive development of the state.

Apart from Airstrip, Purvanchal Expressway has many other features that make it an engineering marvel. Instead of stones covering on the slopes on either sides, honeycomb shaped geocells have been installed. This ensures better grip to keep the structure firm and rugged. The expressway has been built using rubber resin instead of asphalt to ensure its strength and durability. Various safety measures have been taken to prevent accidents, too. There are seven railway over bridges, seven major bridges and 220 underpasses on its way.

Enhancing IAF capability

The 3.2 km long runway on the expressway near Kurebhar in Sultanpur district has been developed for the sole purpose of landing and taking off of Indian Air Force aircrafts during emergency situations. Not only fighter aircraft, but also heavy transport aircraft can land in this strip. PM Modi demonstrated this by landing on this runway in the Air Force's C-130J Super Hercules aircraft that is capable of carrying 20 tons of equipment.

Ganga Expressway

After the Purvanchal and Bundelkhand expressways, the government has proposed to construct Ganga Expressway as the longest expressway in the state. This fully acess controlled 594-kilometre long expressway is designed to connect Meerut to Prayagraj.

Following environmental clearance to the project, the Prime Minister Narendra Modi recently laid the foundation stone of this expressway in Shahjahanpur that is almost midway on the approved alignment . The UP cabinet had approved this expressway project on 24 November 2020. Detailed project report for the expressway has been approved and approximately 95 % of the required land has been acquired. State-level environment impact assessment authority too gave clearance to the project last month.

In the second phase, this expressway will be extended on its western end up to near Roorki while eastern end would be extended up to Ballia via Varanasi. The alignment of the expressway has been kept chiefly along with the river Ganges.

Estimated to cost Rs 36,402 crore, this expressway passes through Hapur, Amroha, Bulandshahr, Badaun, Shahjahanpur, Farrukhabad, Hardoi, Kannauj, Unnao, Rae Bareilly and Pratapgarh districts. It will be a 6-lane expressway expandable to 8 lanes.

Bundelkhand Expressway

The soon-to-be-completed Bundelkhand expressway is going to benefit Chitrakoot, Banda, Hamirpur, Mahoba, Jalaun and Auraiya districts before connecting the existing Agra-Lucknow Expressway. Its total length is 296.07 km. The estimated cost of this expressway is Rs 14,849 crore including the cost of the land. This is a 4-lane expressway, expandable to 6-lanes. The entire expressway will have one-way service lane.

Gorakhpur Link Expressway

Gorakhpur Link Expressway will start from Gorakhpur Bypass NH-27 near Village-Jaitpur and will terminate on Purvanchal Expressway in district Azamgarh. This expressway will connect the major export centers around Gorakhpur with the capital of the country and the state.

Gorakhpur, Sant Kabir Nagar, Ambedkar Nagar and Azamgarh districts will benefit from this 91.35 km-long expressway. The estimated cost of the expressway is Rs 5,876.68 crore. Being constructed as a 4-lane highway, it will be expandable to 6-lanes. So far 70 percent of its work has been completed.

Ballia Link Expressway

The Ballia Link Expressway has also been approved and the construction of this expressway will cost about Rs 1,500 crore. The alignment work has been completed. This will merge in the Purvanchal expressway at its terminating point in Haidariya village near Ghazipur city. This will give Ballia such a road connectivity to Lucknow and Delhi that would cut the travelling time by half. This will save not only time but also resources. Similarly, traveling to Varanasi and other major cities will also be easier.

Looking at all these expressways, one can say that now Uttar Pradesh has started running on the path of development. Even the Prime Minister Narendra Modi reflected on expressways of UP in the same vein and said, "Uttar Pradesh has carved out a strong identity as an 'express state'. The state is working on mega connectivity schemes worth thousands crores of rupees."

It may be pointed out that governments in 70 years period before Yogi Adityanath became Chief Minister could make only two expressways in the state. Yogi Adityanath took this number to five. Some other expressways are also in the pipeline. The state is the same, system is the same, yet results are different as the present government under Yogi Adityanath is whole heartedly working for development of the state.

Connectivity revolution in UP

International airports create new links with the world

Infrastructure forms the basis of economic development of any state and connectivity is the first requirement towards starting and accelerating the wheel of development. Uttar Pradesh Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath understands these facts very well. That's why he started his mission to economically develop the state with creation of infrastructure that would give speedy connectivity to all nooks and corners of the state. Along with ensuring better connectivity within the state, the Chief Minister also ensured giving the state direct links with the rest of the world through air. These efforts started with the decision on constructing two expressways - 341 km long Purvanchal Expressway and 296 km long Bundelkhand Expressway – in the beginning of the present government's tenure. Later, the government proposed construction of the 594-km long Ganga Expressway from Meerut to Prayagraj. Foundation stone for this expressway was recently laid by the Prime Minister Narendra Modi. It will be one of the longest expressways in the country.

International Airports

Development of international airports was also of high importance for the state to be able to attract larger number of international investors and tourists. Kushinagar is the first international airport to have come up in the tenure of the Yogi Adityanath government. Another international airport is under construction at Ayodhya while largest airport in Asia is coming up at Jewar, near Noida. The construction of Kushinagar International Airport was done in record time. It was recently inaugurated by the Prime Minister Narendra Modi in the presence of a group of Sri Lankan Buddhist devotees coming to Kushinagar in the first international flight there. This international airport in the eastern most part of the state is expected to serve a large part of the Buddhist circuit in Uttar Pradesh, Bihar and Nepal facilitating lakhs of Buddhist pilgrims from various parts of the world.

The Kushinagar international airport going operational has also emanated a special and important message that the country is working on the 'Act East' policy as Buddhism is the prevailing faith in most of the east and south-east Asian countries. It also signals that the state is now ready for convenient air transport service from every corner of the world. This is likely to be taken very positively among the followers of Buddhism across the world and particularly among the East Asian nations.

Inaugurating the Kushinagar airport, Prime Minister Narendra Modi called it an 'expression of the aspirations and efforts of decades'. He said that it was his commitment and that had been fulfilled. "We laid special emphasis on connecting Buddhist sites, improving hospitality facilities and ensuring tourist convenience. This airport will serve not only tourists from India but also Buddhists from across the world including Sri Lanka, Thailand, Korea, Japan, Cambodia and other countries," he had added pointing out to importance of the region in international relations strategy of the country. His mention of Sri Lanka government's readiness in accepting to send leading Buddhist monks in an inaugural flight of Sri Lankan airways also indicated the desirable tweak in relations with the southern neighbour.

The Shri Ram International Airport in Ayodhya is also being developed at a hectic pace. This will facilitate lakhs of devotees coming to Ayodhya to pay obeisance to Lord Ram at his new temple.

Apart from these two, the foundation stone of the Noida International Airport at Jewar was also laid by the Prime Minister. This Greenfield project is envisaged as harbinger of rapid economic growth of the state as hundreds of industrial houses have already taken land to set up their factories in areas close to the proposed airport. With these projects, almost whole of Uttar Pradesh will be connected to the International Airports facilitating the movement of foreign tourists and investors.

Ayodhya International Airport

Apart from Kushinagar, the central and state governments are working together to start international flights from Ayodhya by 2022. The development work of Ayodhya International Airport is going on in full swing. This international airport will also be important because there will be a huge influx of overseas Indians for the Ayodhya pilgrimage. It has also been a long pending demand of the Indians living in different parts of the world. The direct access to Ayodhya is very much likely to attract devotees of Lord Ram. It is noteworthy that crores of Hindus across the world hold Lord Ram in high reverence. Many ancient and medieval cultures, including some in Central America, have been identifying with Lord Ram in many different ways and access to Ayodhya would give them an opportunity to revive and re-identify their cultural roots linked with the Sanatan Dharma. The influx of pilgrims is expected to grow manifold once the under-construction grand temple at Ram Janma Bhoomi is completed.

Asia's largest airport Jewar

Amid the large number of airports under development in the state, Noida International Airport (Jewar Airport) remains at the top in the list of Yogi government's priorities. The project hanged fire for long as the governments in the past could not convince the farmers and others to give their land for this greenfield project. However, the Yogi Adityanath government succeeded in acquiring the required land and getting the work started.

This airport is envisaged to emerge as the largest cargo handling centre in northern India. In fact whole of the area around proposed airport is developing into a multi-modal logistics hub facilitating growth of industries in the region and other parts of the state as well. It is close to junction point of the eastern and western freight corridor under development. It is also expected to boost the tourism industry in the Mahabharat circuit. Its construction will not only benefit people around the place, but investment opportunities will also increase in the state. Simultaneously, this airport will reduce the burden of the Indira Gandhi International Airport in the National Capital Region, which is already working at its peak. Given the large number of flights coming to Delhi, the need for another airport in the immediate vicinity was being felt for years to ease the traffic pressure on the air routes to Delhi.

Ever since the approval of the master plan from the Centre, the state government is trying its best to complete it in the stipulated time and its construction work is in progress. The airport is being built by Zurich Airport International AG through its SPV (Special Purpose Vehicle), Yamuna International Airport Pvt Ltd.

The proposed Jewar airport is to be developed in four phases and the acquisition of land earmarked for the first phase of the project has been done. This airport will be connected with the IGI airport through road and high speed rail. Metro rail, high speed rail and roads will connect it to other places like Noida, Aligarh, Mathura and New Delhi etc. Reviewing the progress of the construction work there, the Chief Minister had expressed hope that it will emerge as a 'unique piece of Indian architecture'. This will be the fifth international airport of Uttar Pradesh.

Biden, Putin trade warnings over Ukraine

Two leaders also backed further diplomacy to ease tensions

WASHINGTON

US President Joe Biden has warned Russia's Vladimir Putin that the US could impose new sanctions against Russia if it takes further military action against Ukraine, while Putin responded that such a US move could lead to a complete rupture of ties between the nations.

After a 50 minute phone call — their second in just over three weeks — both presidents indicated support for further diplomacy on the tense standoff between Russia and Western-backed Ukraine.

Further US sanctions "would be a colossal mistake that would entail grave consequences," said Putin's foreign affairs adviser Yuri Ushakov, who briefed reporters in Moscow after the Biden-Putin phone conversation. He added that Putin told Biden that Russia would act as the US would if offensive weapons were deployed near American borders.

White House officials offered a far more muted post-call readout, suggesting the leaders agreed there are areas where the two sides can make meaningful progress but also differences that might be impossible to resolve. White House press secretary Jen Psaki said Biden "urged Russia to de-escalate tensions with Ukraine" and "made clear that the United States and its allies and partners will respond decisively if Russia further invades Ukraine."

Putin requested the call, the second between the leaders this month, ahead of scheduled talks between senior US and Russian officials January 9 and 10 in Geneva.

Biden told Putin the two powers now face "two paths": diplomacy or American deterrence through sanctions, according to a senior administration official. Biden said the route taken will "depend on Russia's actions."

Russia has made clear it wants a written commitment that Ukraine will never be allowed to join NATO and that the alliance's military equipment will not be positioned in former Soviet states. The US rejects what it calls a bid to dictate independent countries' futures. Agencies

WILDFIRES DESTROY HUNDREDS OF US HOMES

DENVER

FAST-MOVING wildfires in the US state of Colorado destroyed hundreds of homes and forced at least 33,000 people to flee, officials have said, as flames tore through areas desiccated by a historic drought.

At least 1,600 acres have burned in Boulder County, much of it suburbs, with officials warning that deaths and injuries were likely as the blaze took hold of a hotel, shopping center and apartment complex in the town of Superior.

"We know that approximately 370 homes in the Sagamore subdivision... have been lost. There's a potential of 210 homes lost in Old Town Superior," Boulder County Sheriff Joe Pelle told a news conference on Thursday.

"Due to the magnitude and intensity of this fire, and its presence in such a heavily populated area, we would not be surprised if there are injuries or fatalities.

Colorado media outlets reported that at least six patients were hospitalised with injuries.

About 33,000 people in the towns of Louisville and Superior were told to flee, with the National Weather Service (NWS) describing the situation as "life-threatening."

Patrick Kilbride, 72, was at work in a hardware store when he heard the order to evacuate, The Denver Post reported.

He raced home to gather his possessions, but was unable to save anything other than his car and the clothes he was wearing. His dog and cat both perished. "It's ashes," he said of the home he has lived in for three decades.

"It's just a strange feeling to go from having everything to make your life comfortable to having nothing," he said.

The fast-moving fires are thought to have begun when power lines were toppled by gusting winds.

Winds of over 160 kilometers per hour were reported in some places, fanning flames and preventing aircraft from taking off. AFP

Trucks queue at UK-EU border

Disruptions feared as new UK-EU customs rules kick in

LONDON

NEW post-Brexit custom rules for goods arriving from the European Union to Britain are taking effect on Saturday, and a leading food industry body has warned that the new border controls could lead to food shortages.

Beginning on January 1, importers must make a full customs declaration on goods entering the UK from the EU or other countries.

Businesses will no longer be allowed to delay completing full import customs declarations for up to 175 days — a measure that was introduced to cope with the disruption of Brexit.

The British Frozen Food Federation said this week the new restrictions on animal and plant products from the EU could result in major delays at ports in the New Year because some in the supply chain — especially logistics companies on the EU side — may not be prepared for the changes.

"We are concerned that not enough planning has been done to ensure the new requirements are understood by everyone in the food supply chain," said Richard Harrow, the federation's chief executive.

"With only days to go before the new rules, we remain concerned that January could be a fraught month for our members," he said.

The new measures require businesses to complete the correct paperwork at least four hours before goods can arrive at UK borders, or they risk being turned back at the border. Animal and plant-based products must also have statements of origin certificates. While drivers must declare their goods and origin certificates, checks are expected to be minimal until the rules ramp up beginning in July 2022, when much stricter checks are expected to come into force. AFP

PAKISTAN

Four killed in bomb blast in Balochistan

At least four political workers were killed and 13 others injured in a bomb blast in Pakistan's restive southwestern province of Balochistan, officials said late on Thursday. The explosion occurred as the workers from an Islamist party were leaving a venue following a conference in the provincial capital of Quetta, which is home to several separatist and Islamist insurgencies. "At least four political workers were killed and 13 others injured," Fida Hassan Shah, a senior police official, told AFP. "It was an improvised explosive device and some 1.5 KG of explosive was used," he added. Javed Akhtar, an official with Sandeman Provincial Hospital Quetta also confirmed the toll. Pakistan is fighting several low-level insurgencies in the province, waged by Islamist, separatist and sectarian groups.

Four more people have been hospitalised with dengue in Dhaka over the 24 hours to Friday morning, Dhaka Tribune reported. As many as 59 people diagnosed with dengue are undergoing treatment at various hospitals across the country. Of them, 31 are being treated in capital Dhaka. In 2021, the country reported more than 28,400 cases of dengue. A vast majority of patients have been cured and discharged from hospitals. The number of cases peaked in September, hitting 7,481. There were 1,200 cases in December

VIETNAM

Activist jailed over posts critical of govt

A court in Vietnam on Friday handed a five year jail term to an activist for social media posts criticising the government. Former middle school teacher Le Trong Hung is the fifth activist to be imprisoned in the last two weeks by the communist state, which tolerates virtually no opposition to its rule. The 41-year-old campaigned as an independent for the country's national assembly election in May, but was rejected as a candidate by the authorities. He was arrested in March and tried on Friday for "making, storing, distributing or propagating information and documents aimed at opposing the socialist republic of Vietnam". According to lawyer Ha Huy Son, Hung was given a five year jail term and a five year probation order at a trial in Hanoi.

SAUDI AIRSTRIKE MISTAKENLY KILLS 12 IN YEMEN

SANAA

An airstrike by the Saudi-led coalition has mistakenly hit a camp of allied Yemeni pro-government forces, killing at least 12 troops, Yemeni military officials said on Friday.

The strike, which took place on Thursday in the province of Shabwa, also wounded at least eight Yemeni troops, the officials said. They spoke on condition of anonymity because they were not authorised to brief the media.

There was no immediate comment from the Saudi-led coalition, an ally of the forces of Yemen's internationally recognised government. Turki al-Maliki, a coalition spokesman, did not respond to numerous calls and messages from The Associated Press seeking comment. At the scene of the strike, several bodies were burned and three military vehicles, some of which carried automatic rifles, were destroyed, said two local residents who asked not to be identified by name, fearing reprisal. AFP

Four Pakistani soldiers killed in gunfight during raid in TTP stronghold

ISLAMABAD

FOUR Pakistani soldiers were killed in a firefight with the local Taliban, the country's army said on Friday, in the deadliest confrontation between the militants and security forces since a truce was called off earlier this month.

Security forces were raiding suspected hideouts in the town of Mir Ali in North Waziristan when four soldiers were killed "during an intense exchange of fire", an army statement said.

One "terrorist" was apprehended with weapons and ammunition, it added.

Tehreek-e-Taliban Pakistan (TTP) — a separate movement that shares common roots with the militants that took power in Afghanistan in August — said the army raid was on a "centre" for its group.

The TTP claimed in a statement that seven soldiers had been killed in its counter attack on Wednesday night, while its fighters escaped unharmed.

In a separate incident, the army said on Friday that two men were killed in a clash in neighbouring Tank district in the province of Khyber Pakhtunkhwa.

The militants were involved in "terrorist activities against security forces, targeted killing and kidnapping for ransom", a statement said.

The TTP did not comment on the second incident.

Pakistan's restive border region has long been a stronghold for groups such as the TTP, which operates across the porous boundary with Afghanistan.

Founded in 2007, the movement is most notorious for a 2014 attack on a school in Peshawar which killed nearly 150 children.

Islamabad in response waged a crushing crackdown on the Islamist group, forcing fighters into hiding in Afghanistan.

Pakistan is now attempting to quash a TTP comeback following the victory of the Afghan Taliban.

The TTP and Islamabad agreed to a truce in November.

But it failed on December 10, with the hardliners accusing the government of violating the terms of the truce. AFP

Personal year number helps in giving a snapshot of the upcoming year. It is calculated based on your date of birth, month of birth and the current year. For instance, if you are born on Jan 1, 2000, then your personal year is 01(DD) + 01(MM) + 6(current year:2022) = 8.

In general, 2022 brings in a personal year number 6 (2+0+2+2), which is governed by Venus and helps us get back into normalcy after 2021 being a year of transformation. Six is the number of love, relationships, harmony, balance, opportunities, money, luck, fame and recognition.

For some, it could be a start of a family life or moving in with their family or visiting their family more often as 2022, also brings in a lot of quality family time. September, October and November are a phenomenal period and will be game changing for a lot of people. It is important to act upon and grab new opportunities quickly. During 2022, people with personal year number 2, 4 and 8 should be cautious.

1 - SYMBOLISES A NEW BEGINNING

This year brings in independence, new beginnings, opportunities, an exciting new adventure that paves the way for the next cycle of 9 years of your life. It is a time to set new goals and work towards it without dwelling on the past. Your physical strength will be good this year and you should use it to its full advantage. The first 3 months will be a bit of a struggle. The latter half of the year will bring in a good change.

2- DEVELOPMENT, COOPERATION AND WAITING

This is a time where you wait and watch. Since it is still in the early stage of development, you will find yourself working on the background and strengthening your foundation. Key is to co-operate, be patient and build relationships that will benefit your future. This period will test your self-control and emotional sensitivities.

3 -SOCIAL EXPANSION AND CREATIVE SUCCESS

This year is happy, social, outgoing and it tends to exude cheerful vibrations. It is the best time to broaden your social circle, check up on old friends, loosen up and live life to its fullest. You may be inclined to take up too many projects and scatter your energies. Keep yourself grounded, be practical and track your goals progress. It's a good year to get all the recognition for your hard work.

4 -HARDWORK & SLOW, BUT STEADY PROGRESS

4 is a year of hard work where you must knuckle down to the task at hand. It can be a frustrating year when considerable efforts fail to provide good results. It may often be the scenario of taking one step forward and then taking two steps back. You must be organised, strategic, down-to-earth and take it day by day. Responsibilities will increase so you must maintain a healthy diet to support yourself.

5- FEELING FREE

5 signifies a changing period in your life. Best year to expand your horizons and grow. This is a year of travel. You will make new friends as your social activities will also expand. This year will bring you excitement, adventure and freedom that you haven't experienced in the previous years. This year can bring major changes to your personal life, your career, family situation or residence.

6- ALL ABOUT LOVE, HOME, FAMILY AND RESPONSIBILITY

6 brings in increasing responsibilities and a strong concern for family, loved ones and close friends. It may be a year where you make some sacrifices for your near and dear ones. The focus for this year is to finish projects that you started earlier. Your emotional interchange with those who are close to you should be at its very best this year. Key focus is to accept a slower pace of work, enjoy the peace and harmony that this year will bring for you.

7- TIME FOR ANALYSIS AND UNDERSTANDING

7 brings in a lot of introspection. You should focus on understanding where you are now and plan for your future. Get away from business pressures and use your time to learn something new. Focus on studying, writing, your ability to think clearly, analysing and integrating your thoughts. You would also feel like detaching from the outside world during this year as you will face a lot of ups and downs.

8 -WORK ON CAPITAL GAINS

8 is a power year where you make important strides in your life. This is a year of big decisions and major achievements. Opportunities for advancement, recognition for your past and current work are likely to come this year but at a very slow pace. Be patient! Great year to expand your business and build on your leadership skills to keep yourself occupied.

9 -TIME TO REFLECT AND REACH OUT

9 is a year for completion. You are likely to scrutinise old values, ideals and the ideas you thought were important. A lot of things that you have been working for will come to an end this year and you will clear the deck for the beginning for a new 9-year cycle. Be careful of overdoing and not looking after yourself.

Better health, no lockdowns, and safe travels. Young city celebs have their fingers crossed about 2022 after two years of uncertainty

NEW YEAR, NEW HOPE

SIRI

EXPRESS FEATURES

WILL the New Year bring with it something to look forward to? That's what popular Bengalureans are hoping for in 2022 after two years of stress, thanks to the ongoing pandemic. Like everyone else, filmmaker Rajaram Rajendran wishfully hopes that the year will wipe away Covid. "The last couple of years has been a roller coaster ride. I hope we can put all that happened behind us. I just want to keep the endless learning going and hope to constantly do better work than before," adds the filmmaker, who is working on the double to complete his new short film by February.

Actor Gouri Kishan only wants to go with the flow and hopes to travel without the worry of Covid. "Personally, I have signed up for many film projects and I don't want another lockdown to hamper it," says the 22-year-old.

To this, Sandalwood actor Dhanya Ramkumar, who hopes for an organic decline in the number of Covid cases, says, "We can't get into a situation again where the livelihoods of people are affected."

Agrees DJ Ritu VK who adds that the years 2020 and 2021 have brought with them uncertainty. "As artistes, we have struggled. We just can't afford anymore lockdowns. We've dealt with enough already," she says, adding, "I don't want to just play at gigs but also be able to host them and collaborate with other artistes. I want to make the most of the year, especially to make up for the lost time."

Bike racer and television personality Aravind KP looks forward to adventure in 2022. In fact, he has a bike race scheduled in France and Morocco in February and March, respectively. "This year, I have decided to complete some of my unfinished races and travel expeditions. I just want to be myself," he says.

Being optimistic is city-based rapper SIRI's motto for 2022. "The last year was a mix of highs and lows – more lows for me. I do not want to repeat certain things in 2022 which brought negativity in my life," says SIRI, who has joined Kalaripayattu classes and plans on being more fit.

Co-founder of Zerodha and True Beacon Nikhil Kamath is practical about this year which will come with its own set of challenges. "If it's Covid, we are better equipped to handle the situation. Infrastructure like traffic, education, and entertainment in the city needs to improve," he says.

FIT BIT

PADA SANCHALANASANA

(CYCLING POSE)

Cycling Pose is primarily the dynamic movement of the legs, in a circular motion while lying in supine position. With the legs moving in a circular way, lifting up to 90 degrees and then dropping down straight and then bending the knees has a direct impact not just on the hamstrings, calves, gluteus, hip flexors, and the joints of the hips, feet and ankles, and knees, but also the core and psoas. This can be a combination of weak core, hamstrings, hip flexors, lower back, or all put together.

STEPS

- Lie down flat on the back, keeping both legs together and hands by your sides, palms facing downwards. Your head should be flat.
- Start with the right leg. Without disturbing the left leg, lift the right leg up. Bend the leg at the knee bringing the thigh to the chest.
- Gently take the leg to 90 degrees, pointing the toes towards you. While doing this, lift the left leg off the floor to 10 degrees.
- As you bring the right leg down, straightening it, lift the left leg and bend the knee to bring it to the chest. Simultaneously, lower the right leg to almost 10 degrees off the floor, ensuring the heel does not touch the floor. Repeat this flow of one leg at 90 degrees and the other at 10 degrees and follow the pattern of how one would actually cycle.
- Repeat this movement coordinating with the breath, inhaling to lift and exhaling to lower. Although the lifting and lowering is happening with both legs, simultaneously, yet keep the breathing with the flow of the leg.
- Continue this practice 10 times in a forward direction, initially, and reverse this direction, completing the flow 10 times.
- Release and relax in Savasana (Corpse Pose).

BENEFITS

- Improves core muscles. Stretches and strengthens the muscles along the spine and legs.
- Improves the flexibility of hips and knee joints.
- Makes awareness and focus for the practitioners.
- Allows the mind to calm down, and rejuvenates the legs and spinal muscles.
- Tones the pelvic floor muscles and reduces water retention in legs.
- Prepares body for standing yoga poses.

LIMITATIONS

- Those suffering from severe hip or knee injury, sciatica, or slipped disc should avoid this.
- People with high BP, hip or knee pain, or any other condition related to the back, chest, legs, pelvis, abdomen, etc., should avoid this.
- Menstruating and pregnant women must avoid.

CHANGING THE MANTRA FROM ME TO WE

I TOOK a conscious decision that if anyone threw brickbats at me, I would respond (in my usual elegant way) by throwing roses back at them…preferably with the flower pot attached! This warning is definitely for those (extra) optimistic bozos who jump out from under the bushes wishing you a happy, blessed, gratitude New Year. I'm done with playing either warrior or victim. I just want to be ordinary…is that so difficult to digest?

The last year and a half has been divergent and anomalous for sure, and shown different and sometimes downright bizarre behaviour patterns both with humans, animals and nature. Human beings were closeted; their normal behaviour and social skills were disrupted.

Exotic birds and animals that were once relegated to zoos were spotted in the streets and nearby highways. Whales and dolphins returned to once abandoned waterways and trees grew stronger and greener while the air was breathable again! Hallelujah!

But still, we, the superior race of homosapiens, died of an unknown disease and every time we thought we found a cure, it morphed into something else.

The burning question is did we learn anything at all, from what the universe was trying to tell us? We were so busy trying to fit our 'old normal' (which was destroying the world) into a 'new normal' which was merely a hotchpotch of convenient and easily followable behaviour patterns.

A new normal requires the use of personal integrity, a sense of responsibility and a certain amount of selflessness. Not unlike trying to fit a round peg in a square hole.

Other than blaming the powers that 'ruled' us, we did very little. Yes! There were a certain section of youngsters who organised themselves into a formidable force to help the beleaguered when the system was collapsing by arranging for food, medicines, oxygen and even ferrying the dead to their final resting place, and yet…we blame our government that has been consistent with one thing…putting its citizens last!

But in all fairness we too, are a 'do it to me baby' type of citizenry. We love to palm the responsibility of our safety onto someone else.

The powers to be are at fault to open up gyms, pools, hotels, spas, movie theatres…whew! But honestly guys…are we being forced into attending a 10,000 people strong Christmas party, or attending a 27,000 people strong concert or attending weddings and religious functions where there are enough people to tilt the earth's hemisphere!

This year and (God forbid) the following year will remain the same if we don't 'tilt' our perspectives.

The world will adapt and so must we. Looking outward after looking inwards is the mantra we need to follow.

The narrative must change from 'me' to 'we'. We have to be our own moral-compasses and be unafraid to pull up the transgressors due to the fear that it may be an unpopular move.

Whether it's a transgression like improperly wearing a mask or the bigger ones like a big hotel-chain letting a Cardi-V positive person run amok! People must be held accountable.

Frequent testing, (with rapid-antigen tests) and forming safe 'bubbles' of like-minded colleagues and friends, may be a quick fix answer.

Everybody is keen to get back to work which is imperative for one's body and soul, but we must implement secure and responsible ways to get our work done.

In the social world of namma ooru though, nothing much has changed. There are charlatans who will self-promote and position themselves as influential party-throwers. Safety protocols and the like get thrown out of the window as the unsuspecting guests; wear their party-wear after a two-year hiatus. Safety is the key and self-censure is the answer.

This year and the next…change the narrative!

Crystal-gazing into the food universe of 2022

As the curtains closed on 2021, we look back at the food and beverage highlights. Here's how the culinary world might shape up in 2022

ASLAM GAFOOR
(The writer is a Bengaluru-based hospitality professional, food lover and travel enthusiast)

Environment-friendly diet

While plant-based food took baby steps last year and won over the hearts and taste-buds of non-meat eaters, we believe that sustainable, nutrient-rich and delicious plant-forward food will foray deeper in 2022. Taking a more holistic approach, consumers are increasingly turning eco-conscious about their eating habits and opting for a low-carbon diet to minimise the adverse impact on the planet. Mindfully sourced hyperlocal ingredients, seasonal vegetables, lab-to-fork cell-cultured meat substitutes and root-to-tip recipes will form a substantial part of menus in restaurants, supermarket shelves and ready-to-cook food segments.

2022 DOWNLOADED

Low-alcohol drinks

If gin, single malts and cocktails ruled the roost in 2021, the year 2022 will witness mindful drinking with dialled-down spirits and zero-alcohol drinks. Wines, beers and spirits will still rule the roost, however, imitation drinks emulating the taste of whiskey, gin or vodka will be widely available this year to enjoy without the percentage and buzz.

Ready-to-cook sauces and DIY kits

Cooking at home has seen an exponential rise all through last year and consumers have been buying off-the-shelf products to make this process simpler, faster, healthier and tastier. Almost everyone is cooking and on the road to becoming a digital-native master chef and baker of Indian and international cuisines. 2022 will see rampant advances in this space with food formulators introducing exciting varieties of sauces, spreads, batters and ready-to-cook foods which will not only minimise cooking blunders but also help us whip up a gourmet dish.

Outdoor dining

Driven by the pandemic, eating out in open spaces is here to stay while providing diners with a lovely ambience and ensuring restaurateurs a new source of income. 2022 will see architects and designers draw up innovative and adaptive al fresco seating options with light, air and space becoming even more important for a safe and exceptional dining experience. Restaurants and cafes around the city outskirts will become a sought-after day-trip destination for friends and family groups as will speciality restaurant pop-ups and intimate dining experiences.

Technology adoption

Restaurants have moved past the initial 'pivot' pangs of the digital revolution in the food business and tech is here to stay. 2022 will enhance the digital guest relationship for restaurants and app aggregators providing diners with attractive visual content, interactive menus, table discovery and reservations, virtual dining experiences, loyalty programs, e-wallets and an integrated touchless food and beverage experience.

Home chefprenuer

The pandemic saw the demand for home-cooked food gain momentum with consumers yearning for 'ghar-ka-khana' flavours. This year, the home chef business will gain newer ground with meals around delicious regional and micro-cuisines, designer bakes, artisanal chocolates, and homemade sauces and pastes. Home chefs will find newer distribution channels that will help them in reaching out to a wider audience and assist with the painful task of delivery and logistics.

Handling the hangover

AJESH JOSEPH
(The writer is bar manager, The Pump House)

THE end of the year usually means endless partying, though the last two years have unfortunately not followed this pattern. Nonetheless, there is bound to be some merry making, and, sometimes, excessive partying can cause hangovers, leaving you feeling miserable the day after.

There are some pre-party do's and don'ts that can help prevent hangovers. For instance, eating greasy foods and carbs help line the stomach and delay the absorption of alcohol. Then, one can avoid aerated drinks. Don't mix drinks, and stick to the same base. Hydrate yourself. And of course, pace yourself in order to slow the alcohol consumption.

There are many supposed cures for a hangover, including buttermilk, lemonade, lemon tea, etc. By and large, these calm the digestive system. Fresh fruits or fruit juices also help to rehydrate and re-energies. Of course, many of these remedies work for some individuals, while they don't work on others. I have even created hangover remedies using parmesan cheese and parsley, sage, rasam mix, apple cider, and egg white. In other words, there is no panacea for a hangover. There is also a school of thought that certain cocktails with alcohol may actually gradually nurse one out of their hangover.

Some of my solutions include the non-alcoholic Virgin Mary made out of tomato juice, citrus, Worcestershire sauce and tabasco sauce, and apple cider, as well as a range of alcoholic concoctions aimed at reducing the effects of a hangover. Come over and see what works for you.

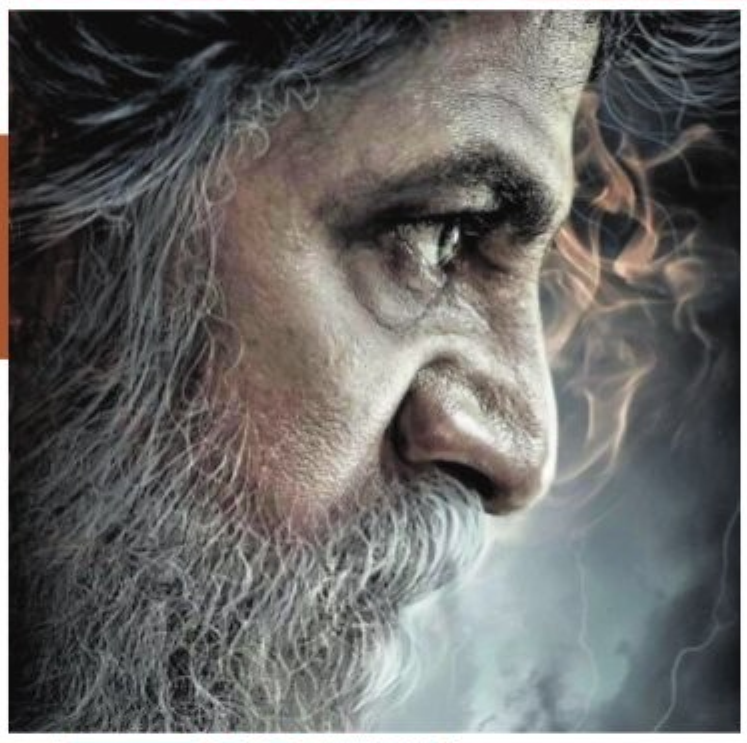
SANDALWOOD



HOPES FOR A BRIGHTER 2022

A SHARADHAA

WITH only a handful of movies providing relief to the Kannada film industry's prospects, Sandalwood is trying hard to forget 2021 as a silent limbo of the past. While Roberrt, Pogaru, Yuvarathnaa, Kotigobba 3, Salaga, Bhajarangi 2, Garuda Gamana Vrishabha Vahana, and Badava Rascal did find audiences rallying behind it, the truth is that Sandalwood had it tough this year. With the country staring at a possible third wave of the pandemic, the not-so-perfect 2021 will surely be carried over into 2022 too.

A few star-studded films that slipped over from 2021 will be making it to the screens in 2022. With other language films are set to occupy the theatres in the first couple of weeks of January, Prem's Ek Love Ya, which is set for a January 21 release might kickstart things for Sandalwood. The Love Mocktail sequel and Srinivas's Old Monk are aiming at a February 11 release.

The first big-ticket release will be the Sudeep-starrer, Vikrant Rona. There is a huge hype around this Anup Bhandari directorial, which will hit theatres on February 24, and is set to be dubbed and released in seven languages.

Even though the release date of Yash's KGF Chapter 2 has been pushed a couple of times owing to the pandemic, it remains as one of the most-awaited films of the year. The sequel to KGF Chapter 1, this pan-Indian film directed by Prashanth Neel, also starring Bollywood actor Sanjay Dutt and Raveena Tandon, is getting ready to hit theatres on April 14.

Gandhada Gudi, which is a dream project envisioned by the late Puneeth Rajkumar with wildlife photographer and filmmaker, Amoghavarsha JS will also be a 2022 release. With the makers exploring a new genre with this film, millions of fans are also hyped about the project because it will mark one of Appu's last films. We will also have Chethan Kumar's James, which features Puneeth in an action commercial entertainer. The film is in the post-production stage, and might release on March 17, which is also Puneeth's birth anniversary. There is also Suni-Sharan's Avatara Purusha, which will hit the theatres in early 2022.

If all had gone well, Rakshit Shetty's upcoming film, 777 Charlie, directed by Kiranraj, would have been released on December 31. But the makers decided to postpone the release and are yet to announce a new date. Rakshit Shetty also has Hemanth M Rao's next, Sapta Sagaradache Yello, which will also be released in 2022.

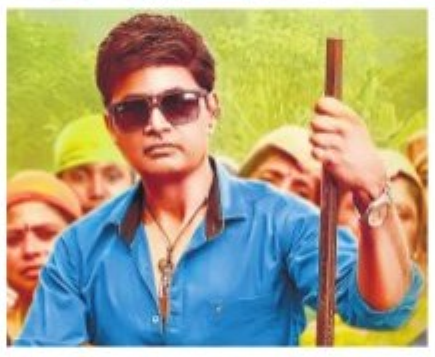
Darshan, who delivered one of the biggest successes of 2021 with Roberrt, will next be part of V Harikrishna's Kranti. The pan-Indian project backed by producers Shylaja Nag and B Suresha is currently on floors.

Shivarajkumar's presence in 2022 will be made through Vedha, which marks his maiden production venture under his home banner, Geetha Pictures. The film will bring together Shivanna and Harsha for the 4th time.

There is R Chandru's directorial Kabzaa. The film starring Upendra in the lead, and Sudeep in a pivotal role, this will be yet another film, which will see a multilingual release.

Considering Dhananjay's first production venture, Badava Rascal, is doing well at the box office, expectations are high for his next production, Head Bush. The filming of Dhruva Sarja and AP Arjun's Martin is halfway done. Martin marks the return of the actor-director duo after Addhuri (2012), which marked Dhruva's acting debut. Dhruva Sarja is also set to collaborate with director Prem, and this KVN Productions film is also one of the hyped projects of 2022.

We will also see the Yogaraj Bhat-Ganesh film, Gaalipata 2, hitting the screens in 2022. The romantic drama also stars Diganth, Pawan Kumar, Anant Nag, Sharmiela Mandre, and Vaibhavi Shandilya, and is now in the post-production stages.



A couple of other films that have created hype are Santhosh Ananddram-Jaggesh's Raghavendra Stores, and Rishab Shetty's next directorial, Kantara. There is also Sriimurali's Bagheera, which has a script written by Prashanth Neel and will be directed by Dr Suri. All three films will be bankrolled by Hombale Films.

Newcomers who will be making their mark will be Dheeren Ramkumar, who is starring in Shiva 143, and Zaid Khan, who is making his debut with Banaras. Yuvarajkumar's Yuva Ranadheera Kanteerava will go on floors in 2022.

This romantic thriller comes with interesting twists but leads to a dead end

LOVE YOU RACHCHU

Cast: Ajay Rao and Rachita Ram

Director: Shankar S Raj

RATING 2.5/5

A SHARADHAA

STORY written by director Shashank and executed by debutant director Shankar S Raj, and director/producer Guru Deshpande as creative head, Love You Rachchu is a romantic thriller that revolves around a happily married couple. A year into marriage, Ajay (Ajay), who holds a good job at a private firm, wants to spend time with his wife's (Rachita Ram) birthday at a resort. However, his plan goes awry when Ajay gets back home and finds his driver (Raghu Shivamogga) murdered. His wife explains, what led to the murder. The couple decides to go on with the vacation plan. But, now, they two have to carry the corpse along with them.

The film is about this journey filled with emotional struggles, relationships, blackmail, fear, and accidental death. The tale has several suspenseful twists and opens up many secrets of the couple's past. As the two try to make their relationship work, another twist derails everything. The film ends on a not-so-predictable note, but it will not linger in the audience's mind for a long time.

Moral learned: Don't invite your past. Karma is like a boomerang that will sooner or later come back to you -- this quote well suits the climax of Love You Rachchu.

Though the film brings in elements of surprise, debutant director Shankar S Raj takes a casual approach with his work. Thus, the plan does not let the audience experience any excitement. While the first-timer has done a decent job, he fails to bring in the edge-of-the-seat thrills. Likewise, a few scenes in the film seem unnecessary to the film's proceedings.

Director Shashank has scripted a good story for the film. I kept wondering if the film would have worked better if he had directed the film as well.

Though Ajay Rao is known for his intense roles, the usual depth in his performance is not seen in Love You Rachchu, and there is no extra effort seen from his end. Rachita has by now come out of her comfort zone and the run-of-the-mill stories. The film proves that she is a performer, and it depends on how much one can extract that good ability from her. Both the lead actors seem to have gone by the director's instructions.

Though the romantic thriller may not give you heart-racing moments, one might end up liking its story and its message.

A sentimental callback to a beloved franchise

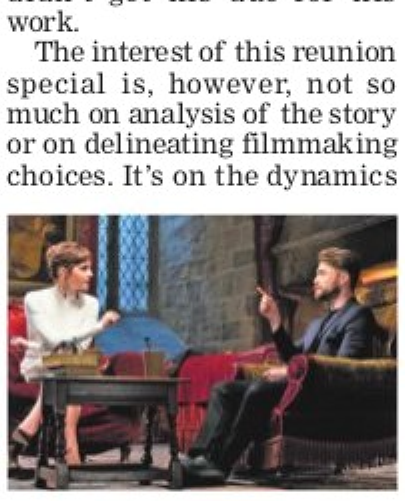
SUDHIR SRINIVASAN

I remember it like it happened yesterday– hanging about the Landmark Store in Chennai 15 years ago, standing in a serpentine line. The pre-ordered fifth book – Order of the Phoenix – was handed out after a couple of hours of waiting, and unlike viewers today who get dispirited by film duration more than 150 minutes, back then, the longer the art experience, the more excited you got. It's with similar imagery – of people congregating outside bookstores, of the frenzy around every new Potter book – that this reunion special begins. That's why it's hard to forgive this film for not having JK Rowling play an integral part (there's the occasional old footage of her speaking about the cast). She was the architect who brought back an entire generation to reading.

Potter 20th Anniversary – Return to Hogwarts, approaches the films chronologically, while allowing the relevant cast members to reminisce. When filmmakers of the calibre of Alfonso Cuaron (Prisoner of Azkaban) speak, insights are not too far away – like when he shares that the final shot of Sirius Black flying away on a hippogriff was meant to signify his liberation, not just externally in terms of the prison life he has escaped from, but internally too, given that the person he loves the most, Potter, is aware of who his godfather is. It's fascinating to observe the respect the cast retains for Christopher Columbus who laid the foundations for this film franchise. That's why Daniel Radcliffe believes that the director didn't get his due for his work.

The interest of this reunion special is, however, not so much on analysis of the story or on delineating filmmaking choices. It's on the dynamics of its cast members, with focus on the main three, Daniel Radcliffe, Rupert Grint and Emma Watson, who share nostalgic anecdotes.



RATING 3.5/5

The film is about these cast members looking back. Coming fast on the heels of the F.R.I.E.N.D.S reunion, it's hard to miss the parallels – like when the cast speaks of how their lives are wound, and how the shared challenges of their lives have forged a bond. This reunion gets interesting when Emma contemplated leaving the franchise mid-way, after the release of The Goblet of Fire. The film doesn't delve into the how and why of her change of heart. The film briefly flirts with complex problems, like the negative effects of fame. Rupert Grint talks of merged identities and how after having been Ron Weasley for over a decade, he isn't sure who he really is.

This reunion film doesn't linger on darkness or is interested in any deep exploration of it, opting instead to evoke nostalgic tears and affectionate smiles. So the film has Watson speak of the early crush she had on Tom Felton (Draco Malfoy), and how while they were never involved romantically, there's still a lot of love between them. Grint and Watson too speak of a shared love, which they are both eager to clarify isn't romantic at all – and the former briefly touches upon how horrific it was to kiss him for Deathly Hallows. You see the difficult positions cinema puts these youngsters in. The fundamental utility of such reunion specials is in the opportunity they offer to have us examine our own past that is, like these actors', inextricably linked to such works of art. Grint talks of how he remembers the landmarks in his life — like getting a driving licence, for example—based on the Harry Potter film he was doing then. He may not know, but we, readers and viewers, have a similar association as well. That's why I couldn't stop thinking of that day over a decade ago when I stood outside the store for a book. As Watson says at the end, perhaps channelling her inner Hermione, "When things get really hard, stories give us places where we can rest… and feel held." So, while Grint may believe that the cast have probably not earned this reunion already, any time, it seems to me, is a good time to remind us of the transience of time and life. What better way to begin a new year than with this realisation?
